CLUB WELCOME

Blacktown City Welcomes Players, Families and Spectators from both Blacktown City and Northbridge Bulls to Lily Homes Stadium for the club's first Sunday afternoon fixture of the season.

Last weekend had both teams ending with drawn results, and we are sure Blacktown City will be looking to go one further and win against what will be a very youthful, organised opposition in Northbridge Bulls.

Blacktown created numerous opportunities against the experienced Apia squad but good defending and two quality keeper saves kept us at bay.

Congratulations to Travis Major whom this week joins the 200 club. He joins players such as Matthew Lewis, Luke Roodenburg, Damien Foxe, Zac Cairncross and Damon Langon in reaching this milestone. Go well mate.

Good luck to our youth who start their 2021 campaign away against Hakoah, and to our GCL girls who travel to Bathurst to continue on in preparation for season 2021.

MATCH PREVIEW

Three points will be on Blacktown City's mind as they host Northbridge Bulls this Sunday afternoon at Lily Homes Stadium.

City was held to a scoreless draw last week by a resolute APIA defence and will be hungry to find the back of the net for this time this season against the Bulls.

The Mark Crittenden coached side showed flashes of what they are capable of in the round one draw with Travis Major and Sean Rooney's impressive return, something which would've excited all Blacktown fans.

The attacking duo will carry most of the scoring responsibility this season and will be determined to get off the mark this week.

Grant Lynch showed why he is one of the best defenders in the league putting in a mammoth display and will be one to look out for on Sunday as will club captain Matthew Lewis who should be back in the starting line-up recovering from a pre-season injury.

Looking to stop them is a very talented Northbridge side which was seconds away from victory over

Sutherland in round one before conceding a dramatic goal in the final seconds of added time.

The disappointment of that result will have them looking to make amends, and they will take solace in how they fought back last week to be in a position to win the match so late in the contest.

Former Western Sydney Wanderers Youth star Rory Jordan excelled for his new club last round, while Lachlan Sepping was the Bulls best against the Sharks.

With the likes of current Bulls A-League first teamers Jake Hollman, Yianni Nicolaou, Liam Rose, Moudi Najjar and Lachlan Rose on their NPL books as well, don't be surprised if we see a couple of these faces pop up at Lily Homes on Sunday.

Blacktown will be the favourite for this match but don't expect Northbridge to be completely out of their depth, with the young side capable of causing a few surprises.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

The National Premier Leagues NSW competition is back and it was all action during a thrilling opening round.

Rockdale Ilinden finished the 2020 regular season in first place and will maintain that mantle to start the season with a big win to kick start the new campaign.

Sydney FC and Sydney United 58 also took home three points from their matches as the only other winners from this weekend's fixtures.

APIA Leichhardt and Blacktown City shared the spoils in their clash on Saturday, while the Sutherland Sharks marked their return to the competition with a dramatic 2-2 draw against Northbridge Bulls.

All matches throughout the opening round paid tribute to former Rockdale midfielder Idriss El Hafiane who passed away earlier this year.

Blacktown City 0 – APIA Leichhardt FC 0 at Lily Homes Stadium

Blacktown City FC and APIA Leichhardt Tigers shared the points after a scoreless draw in their Round 1 clash at Lily Holmes Stadium on Saturday night

While both teams put on threatening attacking displays during the 90-minute battle, it was the defence of both teams that showed that they are teams to be reckoned with in the 2021 New South Wales National Premier Leagues Men's season.

Travis Major was unlucky not to score in a brilliant performance on his return to Blacktown.

APIA will be happy to take a point away from a difficult contest which very easily could've gone the way of the home side.

Northbridge Bulls 2 – Sutherland Sharks 2 at Sydney United Sports Centre

A late equalizer has helped Sutherland Sharks snatch a 2-2 draw in dramatic fashion against Northbridge Bulls at Sydney United Sports Centre on Saturday night.

Oliver Green's header deep in added time secured the boys from the shire a point only moments after the Bulls scored an injury-time goal of their own through Rory Jordan's spectacular overhead kick.

It was a solid first outing for Northbridge Bulls

The young side showed tremendous fight to equalise through Charles William then looked to have the winner with Jordan's sublime finish.

Goals from James Andrew and Green showed there is plenty to admire for the Sharks in 2021.
