CLUB WELCOME

Welcome to our round 4 clash against Marconi Stallions FC.

With this week's clash we expect a difficult game against Marconi as they are a good team. We are preparing for a physical battle which is something I believe our boys need to expect and adapt to.

The boys have played some great football in the opening matches and we should be on a lot more points than we are currently sitting on. I believe we need to be more ruthless in the attack and stronger in our defensive third if we are to win games, but the team is moving in the right direction.

Considering we were very late to sign up players and get everything started I think the team has bonded well. It is a team that has no egos, and everybody is willing to work for each other. They are a great bunch of boys to coach, and we hope to get success on the field because they deserve it with all the hard work and commitment they put in at training.

Thank you for your ongoing support and I hope you enjoy this afternoon's match against Marconi.

MATCH PREVIEW

A maiden win for the season will be on Northbridge Bulls' agenda as they take on Marconi Stallions at Marconi Stadium on Sunday to close out the round.

The Bulls nearly pulled off a second-half fightback last week as they fell to a 3-2 loss against Sydney FC.

While the results haven't been exactly what coach Mile Sterjovski would've hoped for, his Bulls side has delivered several impressive performances across their opening three matches.

Rory Jordan was back amongst the scorers in round 3 after a brilliant display which could've easily featured three or four goals from the former Western Sydney Wanderers dynamo.

If the young attacker adds a clinical edge to his game, he will be a handful for opposition defences.

It will also depend on which current Bulls A-League first team players will come down to assist with club's push for victory. With talented players such as Liam Rose, Moudi Najjar, Jake Hollman, Michael Ruhs and former Stallions stars Lachlan Sepping and Yianni Nicolaou all possibilities for this match-up.

Looking to stop the Bulls push for their first three-pointer is Marconi Stallions, who are also yet to win a game this season.

The Peter Tsekennis coached side were moments away from getting the job done against Rockdale last week before conceding an equaliser in the 90th minute.

While it was a bittersweet result for the Stallions, they showed signs of their incredible potential.

A key aspect to Marconi's performance was their attacking stars Mitch Mallia, Anthony Frangie and captain Marko Jesic all finding the back of the net.

When these three are firing on all cylinders, then Marconi will be hard to stop.

Emmanuel Peters also had a promising debut and will be one to watch as he tackles his former teammates.

This game is set to be an exciting clash and a great game to close the NPL NSW round 4

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney FC 3 – Northbridge Bulls 2 at Ilinden Sports Centre

Sydney FC has held on for a 3-2 win against Northbridge Bulls at Rockdale.

It was the Young Sky Blues second win of the season and their first-ever against the renamed Bulls.

Sydney took the lead after 27 minutes through Patrick Yazbek before Rory Jordan levelled the scores only moments later.

Jaiden Kucharski and Harry Van der Saag's pair of goals helped the home side to a 3-1 advantage early in the second stanza.

A penalty in the 60th minute was converted by the Bulls Stephen de Robilliard to make it 3-2 and set up a nervy finish.

However, it wasn't to be as Sydney FC clung on for all three points.

Marconi Stallions 3 v Rockdale Ilinden 3 at Marconi Stadium

A late goal from Mitchell Stamatellis has snatched a draw for Rockdale Ilinden in a six-goal thriller with Marconi Stallions at Marconi Stadium.

The result maintains Rockdale's undefeated record to start the season, while for Marconi, it was another frustrating game without a win.

It was a high tempo encounter that could have gone either way. Marconi led 2-0 before Rockdale equalised only to see Marconi pull ahead again for 3-2.

However, Stamatellis put away the definitive equaliser for the visitors to secure a point in the end.
