CLUB WELCOME

The Sutherland Sharks Committee would like to welcome the players, committee and supporters of Sydney United FC to Seymour Shaw today. Supporters of both clubs are sure to witness what should be an exciting spectacle between two teams that are unbeaten after two rounds. United have won 2 from 2 and the Sharks have shared the points in their two games so far with draws against Northbridge (2-2) and Marconi (1-1).

We had a wonderful turn out last week with the parents and players from our SAP & SDS teams adding to the wonderful atmosphere. The Sharks came out of the blocks firing last week and will be looking to do the same today.

Jeremy Cox and James Andrew have both returned to the Sharks to give us extra pace and strike power that will be even more evident when Peter Simonoski returns to the field in two weeks. Midfielder Chris McStay is another that has returned to the Sharks after playing professional football in Scotland. His amazing level of endurance is a big asset in the midfield "engine room".

The club is grateful to have the backing of our sponsors whose signage appears around the ground. Please support the businesses that support us.

The Under 20's were in fine form registering a 3-0 win with Jay McGowan scoring a brace. The strike force of McGowan, Sam Amey and Nelson Lam will be a combination to watch. Indeed it was a good day for the club as the youth began their 2021 campaign with wins in the 13, 14, 15's and draws in the 16's and 18's against Mt Druitt.

The half time entertainment today is provided by our Sutherland Sharks Skills Acquisition (SAP) under 9's. Most of these boys have come through the Sharks Development Program.

Let's look forward to a competitive game with the Sharks finishing on top!

MATCH PREVIEW

Sutherland Sharks face their biggest test of the season to date when they host a red hot and title contender Sydney United 58 at Seymour Shaw Park on Saturday.

A missed penalty kick was the only thing standing between the Sharks and a maiden win for the season last week and the team will be determined to make up for it this time around.

The Nick Dimovski coached side has displayed brilliant fighting spirit so far this season and have proven with two solid showings that they are no easy beats.

Chris McStay in the centre of midfield has been an absolute workhorse for the boys from the Shire and his ability to create opportunities shouldn't be overlooked.

Chris Lindsay is another player who excelled against Marconi with his delivery from the dead ball situations and from the left flank a concern for opposition defences.

Sydney United 58 come into this match full of confidence after a thumping 5-2 win against Sydney FC in round two.

Young gun Coach Tomi Vidovic would've been delighted with the performance of his side against the Young Sky Blues as they made it back to back wins.

United 58's attack is firing on all cylinders with frontmen Patrick Antelmi and Chris Payne both scoring a brace.

For Payne that is three goals in his first two games since rejoining the reigning NPL NSW Champions.

The visitors will be favourites for this match, but in front of a vocal home crowd, Sutherland will be looking to cause an upset.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Sutherland Sharks 1- Marconi Stallions 1 at Seymour Shaw Park

A missed penalty in the dying stages has cost Sutherland Sharks as they were forced to settle for a 1-1 draw against Marconi Stallions at Seymour Shaw Park on Saturday.

Striker Jeremey Cox had the chance to win it for the Sharks from the penalty spot in the 83rd minute but was denied by a brilliant save from Stallions shot-stopper Nenad Vekic.

It was another frustrating draw for Sutherland who took the lead in the first half thanks to a clinical finish from Gabriel Contigiani.

For the Stallions, it was a hard-earned point with a Marko Jesic penalty early in the second half securing the draw.

Sydney United 58 5 – Sydney FC 2 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Chris Payne's welcome back to Edensor Park couldn't have gone better with his brace sealing Sydney United 58 FC's 5-2 thumping of Sydney FC at Sydney United Sports Centre in the second round of NPL NSW Men's on Sunday.

Sydney FC made a fast start to the match as Luke Ivanovic opened the scoring after 16 minutes.

The Young Sky Blues lead didn't last long with Antelmi scoring two in less than two minutes to give the home side the lead.

A Matt Sim goal on the cusp of half time ensured United 58 had the upper hand going into the break.

Payne wasn't to be denied scoring a brace after the half time interval to ensure the win.
