CLUB WELCOME

Sydney FC welcomes Sydney Olympic to today's games. We are excited to host the first clash of the season between these two clubs. This will also be our second home fixture of the 2021 season, where we hope to maintain a strong record. Having bounced back in round 3 after coming out on the wrong side of two very tight games, and with last round's fixture against Wolves washed out, there's no doubt Olympic will be fresh and looking to make up for lost time. Our own match last week was equally hard-fought, which we hope to profit from in today's game. We look forward to an enjoyable evening and what will surely be very competitive matches.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC will be looking for their third win of the season when they host Sydney Olympic at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday night.

Since their first years in the NPL NSW competition, the Young Sky Blues have come a long way and are legitimate finals contenders this season.

Coach Jim van Weeren has moulded his youthful squad into a team capable of taking down anyone in the competition.

They will be out to take down another giant this week against Olympic, buoyed from their dogged 1-1 draw in testing conditions against Mt Druitt.

Patrick Yazbek has been in solid form this campaign and put his skills on display with a sublime lofted ball into the box to set up Callum Talbot for the equaliser last round.

Goalkeeper Levi Kaye is another player going through a purple patch of form. He made save after save against Mt Druitt despite the brutal winds and rain.

However, Sydney Olympic will be a completely different test, with the Ante Juric coached outfit desperate to make it back to back wins.

Olympic struggled to get going this season, but after a 1-0 win against APIA in round three will be hoping it is the start of a quick climb up the ladder.

While boasting plenty of attacking talent, it was central defender and captain Thomas Whiteside who has scored their only goal this campaign.

Juric will hope his dynamic attackers Brendan Cholakian, Oliver Pufflet and Jason Madonis find their scoring touch sooner rather than later.

Sydney FC has been in good form this season and will be a true test for an Olympic side struggling to get it together in the attacking third.

It will be an exciting contest to close out round five.

Sydney FC - WASHED OUT

Mt Druitt Town Rangers 1 – Sydney FC 1 at Wanderers Football Park

Sydney FC has clung on for a 1-1 draw with Mt Druitt Town Rangers in wild weather conditions at Wanderers Football Park on Saturday night

In a match dominated by gale-force winds and torrential rain, The Young Sky Blues clung on for a point as a wasteful Rangers were unable to make the most of their chances.

Sydney FC looked on track to snatch a shock win as Calum Talbot latched onto a sublime pass from Patrick Yazbek midway through the first half to give the visitors the lead against the run of play.

However, A dramatic reshuffle swung the game in Mt Druitt's favour after the interval with substitute Jack Stewart finding a crucial equaliser.

It could've been three points for the home side but wasteful finishing in front of goal meant they had to settle for the draw.
