CLUB WELCOME

Welcome to Belmore Sports Ground for our Round 4 fixture against last round winners Wollongong Wolves FC.

It was good to get our first win last weekend against APIA and we need your help as we strive to get back to back wins at home for our supporters. Our Under 20s have remain undefeated and are looking to extend that run against the Wolves.

Congratulations to our SAP player of the week, Under 9's William Garland, as well as our Youth player of the week Kyan Andreotti from our Under 14's. Both players were recognised for strong performances in last week's matches against Blacktown Spartans and Western Sydney Wanderers respectively.

I must thank our season pass holders and fans who truly are the best in the league. The atmosphere you create at all our matches inspires our boys to play their best each week, we are very appreciative of your support. I again urge you to help increase our crowd numbers, contact a friend, whether they are an old Olympic fan or a new football fan, bring them along, we know they will enjoy the day and the Olympic experience.

To our sponsors, please take a minute to have a look at them in this program, we cannot run our club without you and thank you for being part of the Olympic family. As always I urge our fans to support all of our sponsors as they support us.

I hope you enjoy what I am sure will be a very exciting day of football against old NSL rivals Wollongong Wolves.

Go Olympic!

MATCH PREVIEW

Back-to-back wins will be on the Sydney Olympic agenda as they play host to Wollongong Wolves this Sunday at Belmore Sports Ground.

Olympic claimed their first victory of the season with a narrow 1-0 victory against local rivals APIA Leichhardt with captain Tom Whiteside nodding home to collect all three points.

The win was a major relief for the Ante Juric coached side, who had slumped to back-to-back defeats in it's opening two matches.

While they only scored one goal against APIA, Olympic's attack was much improved, with Oliver Puflett a standout in what was a relentless performance from the home side.

It is good signs ahead of this week's match with the combination between Puflett, Jason Madonis and Brendon Cholakian imperative to Olympic's success.

Juric could have a few selection decisions to make again this week after Hagi Gligor and Adam Parkhouse sat out the APIA match, while Chris Parsons kept a clean sheet in his debut covering for the injured Nick Sorras.

Wollongong also comes into this game on the back of their first win of the season.

The Luke Wilkshire coached side nabbed a 3-1 victory against Mt Druitt after a flurry of second-half goals.

It was a brilliant return to form for the Wolves, who had struggled to find their groove in the opening matches.

Lachlan Scott's big performance upfront was the catalyst to the second-half blitz, and Wilkshire will be relying on him to lead from the front again this round.

Leroy Jennings is starting to find his feet at his new club, which is a good sign for Wollongong moving forward.

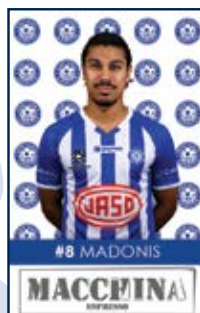

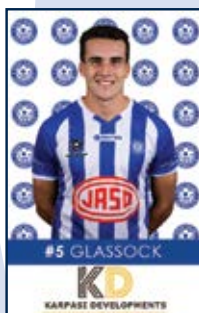

With their first three-pointers in the bag, these competition heavyweights will feel free to play their own games when they go head to head on Sunday.

Olympic will be favourites at home but write off Wollongong at your own peril.

Sydney Olympic 1 – APIA Leichhardt 0 at Belmore Sports Ground

Sydney Olympic secured their first win of the 2021 National Premier Leagues NSW Men’s season with a 1-0 victory against local rivals APIA Leichhardt on Saturday afternoon at Belmore Sportsground.

With pressure building for both teams after difficult starts to the season, it was a clean header from Olympic defender Thomas Whiteside that separated the two teams at the final whistle.

It was the second straight defeat for APIA, who are yet to win a game this season.

Wollongong Wolves 3 – Mt Druitt Town Rangers 0 at Albert Butler Memorial Sports Centre

A comprehensive second-half performance at Albert Butler Park saw Wollongong Wolves claim their first victory of the season in the National Premier Leagues NSW Men’s competition with a 3-0 win.

It was a return to form for the Luke Wilkshire coached side, who netted a trio of goals in a brilliant second-half performance.

Hamish Lamberton opened the Wolves’ scoring in the 47th minute before Darcey Madden, and Lachlan Scott got in on the act to wrap up all three points.
