CLUB WELCOME

We welcome all players, staff and supporters to our game against Blacktown City, as we return to Sydney United Sports Centre for our Round 4 fixture. Three from three in the 2021 NPL competition is a reflection of our hard work and determination, both defining principles of our club. Blacktown City will be looking to bounce back from their previous defeat against Manly, however, we hope to prevail against this respectable side.

We again would like to thank our loyal sponsors, members, volunteers and fanbase for their support during the season.

Sutherland Sharks 0 – Sydney United 58 2 at Seymour Shaw Park

A Patrick Antelmi brace has helped Sydney United 58 keep their flawless start to the season alive with a 2-0 victory against Sutherland Sharks at Seymour Shaw Park on Saturday.

The visitors made it three wins from three starts in the 2021 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition, with Antelmi finding the back of the net on either side of the interval to enforce a first defeat of the season on Sutherland.

Despite trading blows with United 58 in the opening stages, the Sharks could not contain their opponents free-scoring attack.

It could've been more for United as Antelmi missed his chance at a hatrick late, but it wouldn't stop the visitors from taking all three points.

Manly United 1- Blacktown City 0 at Cromer Park

Manly United secured their first three points of the season with a tight 1-0 victory over a ten-man Blacktown City outfit at Cromer Park on Friday night.

A first-half goal on starting debut from winger Daniel Fabrizio split the sides, despite a gutsy showing from Mark Crittenden's men who hung in the contest despite being reduced to ten men for the entirety of the second half after Jak O'Brien's dismissal.

Unlike Manly's last two fixtures, there was no late twist to the tale as the Northern Beaches outfit was greeted by an almighty roar from their home fans as they maintained their unbeaten run the expense of the previously undefeated Blacktown.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 will be looking to get one over rivals Blacktown City this Sunday when the two sides face off at Sydney United Sports Centre.

United 58 will be pushing for four wins from their opening four games and further cement their spot at the top of the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition ladder.

A brilliant brace from Patrick Antelmi eased United 58 to a 2-0 win on the road against Sutherland Sharks in round three.

The striker has started this season in incredible fashion scoring four goals to be equal top of the golden boot standings.

His strike partner Chris Payne is right up there as well, with three goals going to show how prolific this Sydney United attack has been.

Coach Tomi Vidovic will be looking for more of the same this week against a traditionally stout Blacktown City defence.

Jordan Roberts has been a key part of the attack with his supply from the flank, something to watch out for this week.

Blacktown City comes into this game on the back of a disappointing defeat at Manly United last Friday.

The 1-0 loss was a frustrating result for City, who was forced to play nearly the entire second half without Jak O'Brien, who received his marching orders after receiving a red card.

Coach Mark Crittenden would've been impressed with Carlos de Oliveria and Suleyman Bangura's performances, who were impressive during the first half.

This week will be a chance for Crittenden's side to retool and get their gameplan back in check. Defensively this is a Blacktown team that is difficult to break down, and they will want to make it hard for the high flying United 58 attack.

Huge news coming out from Blacktown City off the park was the appointment of one of Australia's most recognisable and respected sports personalities in former NBL Basketball legendary coach Bob Turner as part of the club's new restructure – a massive coup for not just the club but the league itself.

These two teams have developed a fierce rivalry over the past decade after huge matches in the FFA Cup and Finals games.

United 58 will be favourites but don't expect anything short of a huge Blacktown performance. This one could go down to the wire.
