MATCH PREVIEW

Back to back wins will be the agenda for Sydney United 58 as they host Sydney FC at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday.

United 58 took all three points from their season opener against rivals Sydney Olympic and will be full of confidence coming into this week's clash.

The side hit the ground running in round one with brilliant attacking play with the team seemingly hitting their straps under the tutelage of new coach Tomi Vidovic.

Chris Payne was back scoring goals in the United 58 jersey as he scored the winner. He will be determined to add to his tally this week and will be joined by the return of their other star striker in Patrick Antelmi who is returning from suspension.

Glen Trifiro was used off the bench last week but expect him to play more minutes this week.

The Young Sky Blues pulled off one of the upsets of the round last week when they stunned Marconi Stallions.

It was a brilliant result for Sydney FC and goes to show last year's fifth-place finish was no fluke.

Coach Jim van Weeran has his young side firing on all cylinders and they will be determined to shock the competition's heavyweights.

Jaiden Kucharski scored the only goal of the game against Marconi with a delightful finish. It is sure to fill the talented youngster full of confidence going into this clash.

The Sky Blues may inject some young gun A-League first teamers once more in Callum Talbot and Luke Ivanovic who made their starts last week.

United 58 will be the favourites at home but Sydney FC has shown they are more than capable of defeating the top teams in the league.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

The National Premier Leagues NSW competition is back and it was all action during a thrilling opening round.

Rockdale Ilinden finished the 2020 regular season in first place and will maintain that mantle to start the season with a big win to kick start the new campaign.

Sydney FC and Sydney United 58 also took home three points from their matches as the only other winners from this weekend's fixtures.

APIA Leichhardt and Blacktown City shared the spoils in their clash on Saturday, while the Sutherland Sharks marked their return to the competition with a dramatic 2-2 draw against Northbridge Bulls.

All matches throughout the opening round paid tribute to former Rockdale midfielder Idriss El Hafiane who passed away earlier this year.

Sydney Olympic 0 v Sydney United 58 1 at Belmore Sports Ground

Reigning champions Sydney United 58 edged out fierce rivals Sydney Olympic 1-0 in the opening round of the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's at Belmore Sports Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

A Chris Payne penalty proved decisive as United 58 claimed the bragging rights in their derby clash against Sydney Olympic.

United 58 coach Tomi Vidovic collected a win in his first official match in charge

It was a mostly cagey affair with neither side creating many stand out opportunities to score.

Payne's veteran nous helped him win the penalty which he would later score to win the match.

Marconi Stallions 0 – Sydney FC 1 at Marconi Stadium

Sydney FC has opened their National Premier Leagues NSW Men's campaign in style with an upset win against Marconi Stallions at Marconi Stadium on Friday.

A second-half strike to substitute Jaiden Kucharski was the difference as the Young Sky Blues snatched all three points from a wasteful Marconi outfit.

The Stallions controlled large portions of the contest and looked to have the visitors on the ropes throughout much of the first half.

However, Sydney FC's resolute defence held strong to open their campaign with a win.
