CLUB WELCOME

Blacktown City FC would like to welcome players, parents, and staff of Mt Druitt Town Rangers to Lily Homes Stadium for the Mayor's Cup Fixture and local derby with both First team squads turning up after solid wins last weekend.

City travelled to Sutherland Sharks and had two good results with our Under 20's squad thumping Sutherland 8-0, and the first grade winning 2-0.

Our Youth played Northbridge last weekend and recorded wins in the 15's, 16's and 18's with the 13's and 14's recording draws. Youth heads to Rockdale to meet Sydney FC in what will be a cracking day of football.

Our GCL ladies meet Camden Tigers on Sunday at home and we wish them well after a solid start against Mt Druitt with wins in the 15's and 17's, and a draw in the 14's. Go well.

SAP heads off to Northern Tigers after the weekend off in what will be a tough fixture.

Good luck to all teams and we look forward to a bumper crowd to watch the Mayor's Cup as this match is always full of intensity and highlights.

MATCH PREVIEW

Derby honours go on the line as Blacktown City host local rivals Mt Druitt Town Rangers at Lily Homes Stadium this Sunday for the annual Mayoral Cup.

A win against Sutherland Sharks in round six lifted City into the top four and they will be looking to carry on their climb to the top of the ladder.

Mark Crittenden's side have won back-to-back games and are starting to find their form.

Mario Shabow was the star against the Sharks, scoring a brace in a breakout performance.

Daniel Collins is another player to keep an eye on with the veteran defender a key piece in the Blacktown backline.

Mt Druitt will be out to cause an upset on Sunday and come into this game on the back of a solid win against Sydney Olympic.

The Rangers have struggled over the past month and their round six win was a much-needed morale boost for the Stewart Montgomery coached side.

Japanese imports Fumoto Kamada and Tsujimur Takumu are beginning to hit their straps and Kamada's goal against Olympic is exactly what Mt Druitt fans have been waiting for.

Jack Stewart was another strong performer and his ability to break down an opposition defence will be vital for the Rangers chances against Blacktown.

Blacktown will be the favourites for this match but Mt Druitt will be up for this contest against their rivals.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Sutherland Sharks FC 0 – Blacktown City FC 2 at Seymour Shaw Park

A Mario Shabow double has helped Blacktown City to a 2-0 win against a ten-man Sutherland Sharks at Seymour Shaw Park on Saturday.

Strikes on either side of the interval from the former A-League attacking dynamo Shabow were the difference as Blacktown made it back-to-back wins for the first time this season.

A red card to Sharks striker Peter Simonoski in the first half made it tough for the home side to keep pace with their opponents as they looked to secure an unlikely draw.

However, it wasn't to be with Blacktown securing all three points to stay in the finals race.

Mt Druitt Town Rangers 2 – Sydney Olympic FC 1 at Popondetta Park

The Easter Bunny waved its magic at Popondetta Park on Saturday night as Mt Druitt Town Rangers returned to the winner's circle with a 2-1 win against Sydney Olympic.

The Rangers regrouped after a devastating 4-1 round 5 loss to the Sutherland Sharks as their resilient defence led by Travis Oughtred, Blake Thompson and skipper Carlos Saliadarte proved telling in their memorable win over highly fancied opponents.

The hosts repelled the waves of Sydney Olympic attacks in the first half before they opened the scoring through Japanese star Fumoto Kamada. They were pegged back but Cooper Coskerie touched home to give the home side the chocolates..

It was a tough night for Olympic who were on the front foot but couldn't find the net.

Blues substitute Yu Hasegawa equalised with ten to go but the points melted away late in a night of frustration for the visitors.
