CLUB WELCOME

Good evening and welcome to Cromer Park for tonight's National Premier Leagues NSW Men's 2021 match between Manly United and Sydney Olympic.

Our clashes with Sydney Olympic are always high quality and this will be no different.

Manly United goes into the match following back-to-back wins against APIA Leichhardt and Sydney FC and the first time in recent memory sit on top of the Men's First Grade ladder.

While there is a long way to go in the 2021 competition, Manly's position on top of the first grade ladder is a good sign as to the overall strength of the club at the moment with the U20 and U18 teams also at the summit of their competitions and all BYL teams also sitting in the top 3.

Our women's teams started their competition last weekend and managed a clean sweep of victories in all grades.

Last weekend was a special night for Ben Gibson, who made his first grade debut and scored the match-sealing goal in a 2-0 win over Sydney FC.

The 17-year-old striker has been at Manly United since he was 9 years old after playing for local club CC Strikers and continued a positive recent trend of local juniors progressing through to the first grade side.

While the juniors are making a significant input to the recent success it is the core of experienced players that have been guiding the ship, on and off the field, ensuring that the environment at Cromer Park is competitive but collaborative.

Sydney Olympic comes across town with a sprinkling of former Manly players and we welcome Brendan Cholakian, Marley Petersen and Adam Parkhouse back to Cromer Park for tonight's game.

Good luck to both teams and we hope you all enjoy Friday Night Football at Cromer Park.

MATCH PREVIEW

Competition leaders Manly United will be out to add to their unbeaten streak with a win against Sydney Olympic at Cromer Park this Friday.

Manly have climbed to top spot on the back of three wins from their past four games and are in good form early in the season.

Coach Adam Griffiths has his team playing quality football and they'll be determined to prove themselves against Olympic.

Manly have cruised under the radar a bit this season but will now need to prepare for life with a target on their back as rival sides look to knock them off their perch.

Jack Fulton and Ben Gibson were the goal scorers for manly last week and Griffiths will be hoping his young team continues their form in front of goal.

Looking to stop them is a Sydney Olympic side that has struggled for consistency so far in 2021.

Coach Ante Juric will have one eye on his Sydney FC W-League side who are set to play in yet another

W-League Grand Final this Sunday but will want to get on the front foot with a victory in Manly before that clash.

Back to back wins in rounds four and five were undone by a poor performance in a defeat at Mt Druitt in round six.

Olympic's goalscoring woes have returned and despite creating brilliant chances for Jason Madonis and Yu Hasegawa, couldn't find the back of the net against Mt Druitt.

Sitting in ninth place on six points, Olympic will need a win to stay in touch with the competition leaders if they are going to keep their premiership hopes alive.

Manly United will be tough to beat at home and will be favourites for this clash.

A thrilling match-up to kick-off round seven.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Manly United 2 – Sydney FC 0 at Cromer Park

Youngster Ben Gibson stole the show with a goal minutes into his senior debut as Manly United maintained their unbeaten start to the National Premier Leagues NSW season with a 2-0 victory over Sydney FC at Cromer Park on Good Friday.

The win moved Manly United to the top of the NPL NSW ladder as their incredible start to the campaign continues.

Despite a slow start to the match from Manly, Jack Fulton opened the scoring for the home side only moments after the restart

Debutant Gibson doubled the advantage in the 77th minute as the boys from the Northern Beaches cruised to another brilliant win.

Mt Druitt Town Rangers 2 – Sydney Olympic FC 1 at Popondetta Park

The Easter Bunny waved its magic at Popondetta Park on Saturday night as Mt Druitt Town Rangers returned to the winner's circle with a 2-1 win against Sydney Olympic.

The Rangers regrouped after a devastating 4-1 round 5 loss to the Sutherland Sharks as their resilient defence led by Travis Oughtred, Blake Thompson and skipper Carlos Saliadarré proved telling in their memorable win over highly fancied opponents.

The hosts repelled the waves of Sydney Olympic attacks in the first half before they opened the scoring through Japanese star Fumoto Kamada. They were pegged back but Cooper Coskerie touched home to give the home side the chocolates..

It was a tough night for Olympic who were on the front foot but couldn't find the net.

Blues substitute Yu Hasegawa equalised with ten to go but the points melted away late in a night of frustration for the visitors.
