CLUB WELCOME

Welcome to Sydney United Sports Centre for this afternoon's National Premier Leagues NSW Men's 2021 match between Northbridge Bulls and Manly United.

The team is continuing to progress and play well with people starting to notice the type of football we are producing. Last week was a tough game against Rockdale but we proved that we could compete with one of the best teams in the NPL and were unlucky not to get more out of the game. I am proud of the boys and the way they applied themselves and played our brand of football.

This week, we expect another difficult game against Manly United as they have started well this season. We love challenges and we love to test the players against good opposition, so we are looking forward to this fixture.

Good luck to both teams and we hope you all enjoy Saturday afternoon football at Sydney United Sports Centre.

MATCH PREVIEW

Northbridge Bulls will be looking to return to the winner's circle when they host Manly United at Sydney United Sports Centre this Sunday.

The Bulls need the competition points to move back into the top five after dropping to seventh following last week's loss against Marconi.

A dominant win against Sydney United 58 in round six sent shockwaves around the competition and was signs of what the Mile Sterjovski coached side is capable of on their day.

Northbridge has been able to share the goalscoring around this season, with eight different players finding the back of the net and four scoring two or more goals.

Rory Jordan is the Bulls leading scorer this season and has been a handful for opposition defences.

Moudi Najjar is another player who has been in top form and will be looking to carry that on against Manly.

Manly United come into this match on the back of their first defeat of the season as they went down 2-0 to Sydney Olympic.

It was the Northern Beaches side's first slip up of the campaign, but coach Adam Griffiths will be confident his side will be back to business and keep the pressure on the Rockdale and Sydney United in the premiership race.

Experienced striker Richie Cardozo has been a strong veteran presence for Manly this season, and his ability to both score and create opportunities remains invaluable.

Manly will be favourites for the match, but Northbridge is more than capable of pulling off an upset.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Northbridge Bulls FC 0 – Rockdale Ilinden FC 1 at Sydney United Sports Centre

A late Alec Urosevski strike has helped Rockdale Ilinden snatch a late 1-0 victory against Northbridge Bulls FC at Sydney United Sports Centre on Saturday night.

It was a contest in which chances had to be earned, and Rockdale Ilinden FC was able to make their one count.

Urosevski was the hero yet again for Rockdale, finding the back of the net from the penalty spot with only five minutes left on the clock.

The result was a reality check for the Bulls, who were without the magic they displayed in their dominant win against Sydney United in round six.

Manly United FC 0 – Sydney Olympic FC 2 at Cromer Park

Sydney Olympic ended Manly United's unbeaten start to the National Premier Leagues NSW men's season with a professional 2-0 victory at Cromer Park on Friday night.

Goals at either side of the break ensured the former NSL giants took three points away from the Northern Beaches.

Jason Madonis broke the deadlock from the spot in virtually the last action of the opening stanza before Fabian Monge added a second midway through the final 45.

It was also a welcome return to ex-Manly United star Brendan Cholakian who returned back to his former stomping ground where he left a winner with his new club.
