CLUB WELCOME

We welcome everyone to the Ilinden Sports Centre for this round 6 clash against APIA Leichhardt Tigers.

We come into the game following our first loss of the season last Sunday against Blacktown City. It was a frustrating afternoon. We started strongly, took the lead, hit the post and could have been up by a couple of goals. Unfortunately the second half did not go according to plan and we were made to pay by a very good Blacktown side.

That said, we have a chance to make up for that performance this Sunday against APIA. Our visitors will have a familiar face in the dugouts with former Rockdale player Paul Dee now at the helm. These are always tough battles and we expect much of the same for this clash. Two teams who will be hungry for the 3 points.

We hope to see a large crowd in attendance to cheer on our team.

As always, we would like to thank our sponsors for their support of the club:

MATCH PREVIEW

A return to winning ways will be the primary goal for Rockdale Ilinden this week as they host APIA Leichhardt at Ilinden Sports Centre this Sunday.

Last week, a shock 4-1 loss to Blacktown City was a wake-up call for the reigning premiers, and coach Steven Zoric will be determined to have his team ready to bounce back.

The defence will likely be the main focus on the training paddock this week, with pressure on star backs Banri Kanaizumi, Mitchell Stamatellis and Daniel Petkovski to hold strong against a struggling APIA attack.

Alec Urosevski cannot stop scoring and will have one eye on the prize yet again as he hopes to deliver more goals and excitement in front of what should be a vocal crowd on Sunday.

APIA will be desperate for a victory in what will be a tricky opponent but wins really need to kick start their push for a finals finish.

With all its glitz and glamour after seeing major upgrades to Lambert Park, the club is hoping that victories on the pitch will settle the squad.

It has been tough going for the Inner West club who will be backing up for their second game in only a matter of days after they take on Sutherland on Wednesday night.

APIA have struggled to get it together at both ends of the paddock and will need a big turn around under new coach Paul Dee.

Blake Powell has failed to hit the ground running on his return to APIA, but a few goals for the talented striker could easily get him back on track.

Ivan Necevski has been a champion underneath the sticks and his influence too will be a big bearing on how this match will go while new recruit Harry Callahan will need to find that form he had with the Wolves to propel the club back to winning ways.

Rockdale will be big favourites in this game; however, APIA has long dominated matchups between these two sides.

It could be the perfect fixture for APIA to find their way, or it could just be the game that gets the Rockdale machine up and running again.

Either way, it is one you don't want to miss.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Blacktown City 4 – Rockdale City Suns 1 at Lily Homes Stadium

A trio of second-half goals has helped Blacktown City FC stun Rockdale Ilinden FC 4-1 at Lily Homes Stadium on Sunday.

It was a sensational return to form for Blacktown with the win breaking a two-game losing streak.

Rockdale took an early lead but the home side found a spark from a Matthew Lewis moment of magic to make it 1-1 at the break.

City turned it on after the break with goals to Mario Shabow, Carlos De Oliveira and Travis Major to ensure a well-earned win.

APIA Leichhardt 1 – Manly United 2 at Lambert Park

A Dejan Pandurevic double has helped Manly United get one over their former coach Paul Dee in a 2-1 win against APIA Leichhardt at Lambert Park on Saturday

It was a difficult start to Dee's APIA tenure with Pandurevic's brace ensuring the Leichhardt based outfit remain slumped to the foot of the table.

An 84th-minute strike from substitute Corey Biczko wasn't enough to answer an early goal and second-half penalty from Manly, leaving APIA heading into Round 6 of the 2021 NPL New South Wales Men's competition without a win.
