CLUB WELCOME

Sydney FC welcomes APIA Leichhardt to today's games. We are excited to host the first clash of the season between these two clubs. This will also be our fourth home fixture of the 2021 season, where we have had some success this season and hope to continue improving our record. Both sides played out tight fixtures in Round 7, and will be highly motivated to take all three points at Ilinden today. We look forward to an enjoyable evening and what promises to be very competitive matches.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC will be out to get the better of APIA Leichhardt when the two sides face off at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre this Sunday night.

The Young Sky Blues were left heartbroken as they conceded an equaliser in Injury time to settle for a 2-2 draw against Sutherland Sharks.

The result stretched their run of games without a win to four and left them only three points above APIA at the bottom of the table.

Coach Jim van Weeran will need a big performance from his side and will look to players such as Callum Talbot, Jaiden Kucharski and Jordi Swibel to lead from the front.

They take on an APIA side that has failed to get going this season with only one win so far this campaign.

New coach Paul Dee has had a few weeks to find his feet, but results are needed sooner rather than later with the side at the bottom of the table.

Paul Galimi has had some brilliant performances this season and will once again be a rock at the back for APIA alongside another top performer for the club Josh Symons.

The pressure will be on Blake Powell to find his scoring touch, with goals so far being in short supply for the Lambert Park based side.

This is a crucial game for both teams, so neither side will want to leave with anything other than the full three points.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney FC 2 – Sutherland Sharks 2 at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre

A James Andrew goal in the dying seconds has helped Sutherland Sharks snatch a dramatic 2-2 draw against Sydney FC at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday night.

It was Andrew's second goal of the game with the pacy striker clinching a crucial point for the Sharks on the road.

Sydney FC thought they had done enough for victory after Patrick Wood and Jordi Swibel each scored in quick succession to give the Young Sky Blues the lead with only 10 minutes left on the clock.

However, it wasn't to be with Andrew snatching the equaliser deep into added time to ensure the visitors didn't go home empty-handed.

APIA Leichhardt FC 1 – Marconi Stallions 1 at Lambert Park

A ten-man Marconi Stallions has held on for a 1-1 draw against APIA Leichhardt at Lambert Park on Sunday.

It was a determined derby performance from the Stallions who equalised early in the second half before clinging on for a point after going down to ten men only moments later.

APIA opened the scoring in spectacular style courtesy of a Paul Galimi stunner in the 51st minute.

However, the visitors were back on level pegging through Mitch Mallia less than 10 minutes later.

Mark Rodic was sent for an early shower after receiving a red card in the 64th minute with the Stallions digging deep to secure a hard-fought point.
