CLUB WELCOME

Sydney FC welcomes Wollongong Wolves to today's games. We are excited to host the first clash of the season between these two clubs. These will also be our final home matches of the first round of fixtures, which we hope to close out on a positive note. Both clubs on show today have swapped opponents in recent weeks and experienced very similar results – no doubt the games will be competitive and evenly matched, as the teams look to return to form and pick up midseason points. We look forward to an enjoyable evening and what will surely be very entertaining matches.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC is determined to climb off the bottom of the ladder, starting with a win against Wollongong Wolves at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

The Young Sky Blues have had a horror run of results and haven't tasted victory since round three.

A 3-0 loss at the hands of Blacktown City was the Jim van Weeren coached side's most recent defeat.

Tom Fay and Patrick Yazbek had bright moments in the first half of that clash, but a poor second stanza from the side proved costly.

Clayton Taylor also had a few good plays for the Young Sky Blues.

They will need a much-improved performance if they are going to beat Wollongong Wolves.

However, the Wolves have had their own struggles and have won only once in their past five games.

The Luke Wilkshire coached side suffered a 2-1 loss to APIA last week with Lachlan Scott, their lone goal scorer.

A shake-up of the starting line-up last week did not reap the results Wilkshire would've hoped.

Leroy Jennings was returned to the starting side last week, and the high-profile signing will need to deliver on his potential if he is given another chance is the first eleven.

Keeper Hayden Durose has had a sound year thus far and is sure to be tested once more come Sunday.

The club has parted company with Kiwi Van Elia but the imminent return of former Gold Medal winner Thomas James in a few weeks time from a long-term suspension will be something Wilkshire and the Wolves squad cannot wait to see.

It is set to be an evenly matched contest with pressure on both sides to take all three points.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Blacktown City 3 – Sydney FC 0 at Lily Homes Stadium

A big second-half showing has helped Blacktown City to a dominant 3-0 win against Sydney FC at Lily Homes Stadium on Sunday.

While the match was locked scoreless at the break, Blacktown City found their rhythm in the second stanza as Travis Major, Mario Shabo and Suleyman Bangura hit the back of the net to secure all three competition points.

It was another frustrating result for Sydney FC who have now gone six matches without a win.

The win moves Blacktown City into second place on the ladder, only two points behind competition leaders Rockdale Ilinden.

APIA Leichhardt 2 – Wollongong Wolves 1 at Lambert Park

A pair of first-half goals have helped APIA Leichhardt to their third win of the season as they claimed a 2-1 win against Wollongong Wolves at Lambert Park on Friday night.

Strikes from Mathieu Cordier and Sean Symons before the interval were enough for APIA as they held out an improved Wolves display in the second stanza to secure all three competition points.

It was a second straight loss for the Wolves who have only two wins from their opening nine matches.
