CLUB WELCOME

Fast approaching to the middle of the 2021 season, we welcome Manly United to Sydney United Sports Centre for today's fixture. Manly come off a 1-0 defeat to Sutherland Sharks FC and with only 5 points separating the top 6, both teams will be fiercely competing for the win. Credit to Tomi Vidovic's management recently returning a solid defense with three clean sheets in the past three rounds. The absence of Christopher Payne and Patrick Antelmi has been felt over the past few weeks, however, the togetherness and focus of the group has no doubt turned our squad to a stronger force.

As always, we would like to thank our sponsors, members and supporters for their loyalty pushing us forwards every week.

Rockdale Ilinden FC 0 – Sydney United 58 0 at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 has dug deep to claim a point in a scoreless grand final rematch against Rockdale Ilinden at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre.

Early dominance from Rockdale equated to nothing as poor finishing and an improved second half from United 58 ensured both sides shared the spoils.

Neither side was able to produce that one moment of inspiration to take all three points in an entertaining end-to-end game of football.

Manly United 0 – Sutherland Sharks 1 at Cromer Park

Sutherland Sharks FC lifted themselves off the bottom of the NPL NSW Men's 1 ladder with a tense 1-0 result against Manly United FC tonight at Cromer Park.

Fresh from their dramatic seven-goal thriller, Manly United FC looked to cement their spot in the top four against the struggling Sutherland Sharks.

The home side dominated the first half but was unable to find the back of the net and fell to their second defeat of the season.

Tonight's result was a much-needed relief for the Sutherland Sharks FC with James Andrew converting the winning goal from the penalty spot.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 will be out to end their winless run when they host Manly United at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday.

After a rampaging start to the season, United 58 have hit the skids hard, going without a win for six straight weeks.

A 0-0 draw with Rockdale was their third consecutive scoreless stalemate with the free-scoring ways of the opening round well and truly in the past.

Coach Tomi Vidovic has a big task ahead of him to reignite his stuttering attack, which has found the back of the net only once in six weeks.

Chris Payne's continued suspension and a serious injury to Antony Tomelic has stretched United 58's squad depth, but they still have plenty of players capable of leading the team to victory.

A vintage Glen Trifiro display against Rockdale was a positive sign for United 58, and they'll be learning on the veteran midfielder again this week.

Patrick Antelmi will also be one to watch out for as the ace marksman hopes to rattle the back of the net once more since returning from injury two weeks ago.

They take on a Manly United side who have also slowed down after a fast start to the campaign.

A win and two losses from their past three games meant Manly slid down the table after taking top spot earlier this season.

Coach Adam Griffiths will demand a much-improved performance, especially after going down 1-0 to Sutherland last round.

Seiya Kambayashi has been in good form, becoming somewhat of a late-game specialist with two injury-time goals this season.

This game is important to the premiership hopes of both sides and will be one you won't want to miss.
