CLUB WELCOME

We welcome all players, staff and supporters to our Round 6 game against Northbridge Bulls FC. Returning home after our 0-2 defeat against our neighbours Marconi Stallions, we are determined to get back to winning ways. We will be tested against a youthful Northbridge side, however, our experience and discipline will help us get back over the white line with a victory.

We again would like to thank our loyal sponsors, members, volunteers and fanbase for their support during the season.

Marconi Stallions 2 – Sydney United 58 0 at Marconi Stadium

Marconi Stallions have stunned competition leaders Sydney United 58 to notch a shock 2-0 win at Marconi Stadium on Sunday.

It was the Stallions first win of the season and ends United 58's flawless start to the campaign.

Goals either side of half-time courtesy of Anthony Frangie and Giorgio Speranza were the difference as an inspired Marconi attack proved too much for their local rivals.

The result gets Marconi's season back on track after a difficult start to the season moving them only one point outside the top five.

Wollongong Wolves 0 – Northbridge Bulls 1 at WIN Stadium

Northbridge Bulls earned their first win of the season with a late 1-0 victory against Wollongong Wolves at WIN Stadium on Sunday afternoon.

A Moudi Najjar goal in the dying stages was the difference as the visitors claimed all three competition points.

It was a frustrating result for the Wolves who failed to hit their mark but seemed likely to hold on for a draw.

However, Najjar had different ideas snatching victory in the most dramatic of fashion.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 are looking for a big bounce-back performance when they take on Northbridge Bulls at Sydney United Sports Centre this Monday.

United 58 came tumbling down to earth after suffering a loss to local rivals Marconi in round 5, ending their flawless record to start the season.

While the Tomi Vidovic coached side remains in top spot, they will be hoping the defeat was just a blip in what has been so far building towards a very successful year at Edensor Park.

Patrick Antelmi failed to find the target for the first match this season, but he still leads the golden boot race with five goals.

Daniel Nizic in the Reds goal was kept busy against Marconi and made several really good saves to keep his side in the contest. He is beginning to make the number one shirt his own this season.

A knock to Glen Trifiro suffered in the first half of the match against Marconi will be a concern for Vidovic this week. Andrea Agamemnonos was his replacement last week and could be called on this round if the talented Trifiro is unavailable.

Northbridge were winners in round five and will be pushing for another three competition points this week.

Their incredible 1-0 victory deep in injury time courtesy of Moudi Najjar was a dramatic victory on the road for the Mile Sterjovski coached team.

Theph Theph had a breakout performance for the Bulls in that game, claiming man of the match honours, while goalkeeper Ryan Wood also delivered a big performance.

Captain Rory Jordan missed a penalty against the Wolves and will be out to bounce back in a big way in this match.

Sydney United 58 will be tough to stop at home and will be the favourite to win this one.

This game is set to be an exciting way to wrap up the round and one not to miss.
