CLUB WELCOME

We welcome all players, staff and supporters to our game against Wollongong Wolves for this Round 7 fixture. After a strong start to the 2021 NPL NSW Men's competition we are determined to adhere to our principles and prove our solidity and unity together as we fight as one to return to the top of the table. This match against the Wolves will display two differing styles of play, which reflects the beauty of our competition and the variation our technicians bring to the game.

We again would like to thank our loyal sponsors, members, volunteers and fanbase for their support during the season.

Sydney United 58 1 – Northbridge FC 5 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 have suffered an Easter Monday humiliation after a 5-1 boilover at the hands of Northbridge Bulls.

If you looked twice when you saw the full-time score at Sydney United Sports Centre, nobody would blame you as the Bulls dismantled United 58 in one of the performances of the season so far.

Two goals within the first 10 mins and another three before the half had the Bulls cruising before United scored a late consolation.

United old boy Michael Ruhs had two to his name, as did Jake Hollman, while Moudi Najjar scored the other.

Chris Payne scored from the spot for United with just over 10 minutes to go but it was Northbridge's day as they took home the three points in emphatic style.

Marconi Stallions 2- Wollongong Wolves 2 at Marconi Stadium

Wollongong Wolves have fought back from two goals down to snatch a 2-2 draw against Marconi Stallions at Marconi Stadium on Friday.

Strikes from Darcy Madden and Stefan Dimovski helped the visitors take a valuable point after going behind early in the contest.

It was a frustrating result for the Stallions, who looked set for back-to-back wins after a brace from Marko Jesic inside the first 20 minutes.

However, it wasn't to be for the home side as Wollongong rallied with the game on the line.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 will be desperate to bounce back after their round six humiliation with victory against Wollongong Wolves on Sunday which saw the famous former NSL club slump to a second successive loss for the 2021 campaign.

United 58 suffered a 5-1 boilover to a young Northbridge Bulls side in a result nobody could've predicted.

Rookie NPL NSW Men's 1 coach Tomi Vidovic will be pushing his side to respond positively against a Wolves side that has struggled.

Mat Sim showed some late enterprise to win a penalty against the Bulls in one of only a few bright moments for United 58.

More is expected from Patrick Antelmi this week after being subbed last weekend.

The Reds know what they need to do to win the respect for their vocal and passionate fans once more, many of which were left disappointed after last weekend's display when a chorus of boos echoed out around the stadium.

The Wolves come into the game after a brilliant fightback to snatch a 2-2 draw against Marconi.

It was a great display of resilience from Wollongong who did not give up when they were 2-0 down.

Coach Luke Wilkshire will be hoping for more of the same from his side.

Stefan Dimoski played well last week and was a solid presence upfront.

Despite last week's defeat, United 58 will be expected to win this game.

Wollongong will need another big performance but have shown they can take it to the best teams on their day.
