CLUB WELCOME

We welcome everyone to the Ilinden Sports Centre for this round 14 clash against Marconi Stallions.

We enter this fixture in 3rd position following a very unlucky 2-2 draw last Sunday away against Sydney Olympic. It was an action packed game that had a bit of everything.

Our under 20's are proving difficult to breakdown and they also secured a draw on the weekend.

With that as the backdrop, we return to the Ilinden Sports Centre for round 14 action against Marconi.

In the corresponding fixture earlier this year, the game finished 2-2. It too was a game with a bit of everything and this game promises to be no different. Our visitors have been very unlucky in several fixtures and so this promises to be an epic battle.

Away from NPL action, last week we secured our passage into round 7 of the FFA Cup following a 2-0 victory over local rivals St.George FC. We have been drawn against fellow NPL 1 outfit Mt.Druitt in round 7 action. Match details to be confirmed.

Apart from that, our annual club raffle is open. Thank you to our sponsors who have donated some impressive prizes.

Hope to see you all at the game.

We ask that you all continue to support the club. We ask that you continue to support our wonderful sponsors:

MATCH PREVIEW

Rockdale Ilinden will be out for all three competition points when they host a struggling Marconi Stallions at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

Third-placed Rockdale have dropped points in recent weeks after a run of frustrating draws and are now three points behind competition leaders Sydney United 58.

With only one win and four draws in their last five matches, coach Steve Zoric will be determined to push his team back to winning ways.

Rockdale shared the spoils 2-2 with Sydney Olympic in Round 13 with goals to Tomoki Wada and Alec Urosevski helping their side in a brilliant fightback.

Wada's creativity in midfield will be essential in this match, with the Japanese playmaker able to break through a talented Marconi midfield.

Alec Urosevski remains the main man in attack for Rockdale and will be out to add to his tally of 11 strikes so far this season.

Marconi comes into this match after three straight draws, including a 1-1 result against Sutherland in Round 13.

The Stallions have missed a winning edge with only one win all season and have been labelled the draw masters.

Chris Hatfield did have an industrious match for the Stallions while Nenad Vekic has been a standout for the club's as the number one keeper.

Marko Jesic and Anthony Frangie in attack can create headaches for the Rockdale defence and will need to be at their best to give Marconi their best shot.

Nathan Millgate offers the side a brilliant option from set-pieces. The tall defender possesses an innate ability to get his head to the ball in the opposition penalty area.

Rockdale will be favourites for this match at home, but recent form from both sides could mean this game could end in a draw.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney Olympic 2- Rockdale Ilinden 2 at Belmore Sports Ground

An inspired second-half fightback has helped Rockdale Ilinden snatch a 2-2 draw against Sydney Olympic at Belmore Sports Ground on Sunday.

Goals from Tomoki Wada and Alec Urosevski after the interval helped Rockdale secure a vital competition point after conceding twice in the opening 45 minutes.

It was a frustrating result for Olympic who were in control of the contest after goals from Adam Parkhouse and Brendan Cholakian.

However, the visitors were not to be denied with Urosevski opening Rockdale's account only moments after the restart before Wada headed home to net the equaliser 15 minutes from time.

Marconi Stallions 1 – Sutherland Sharks 1 at Marconi Stadium

Marconi Stallions were forced to settle to their ninth draw of the season as they were held 1-1 by Sutherland Sharks at Marconi Stadium on Saturday.

Chris Hatfield ensured the Stallions took home a point with a goal on the cusp of halftime after Sharks defender Gabriel Contigiani opened the scoring only moments earlier.

Sutherland was keen to put behind last week's lacklustre performance against Northbridge in the past and was a much-improved outfit on the night.

The Sharks enjoyed a short lead in the late stages of the first half after Lachlan Everett picked out an oncoming Contigiani deep in the box for the opener.

Marconi levelled the game minutes later after an over-powered back pass from Chris Lindsay gave Hatfield a perfect run through on goal where he netted the equaliser.
