

KICKOFF

2021 - ROUND 11

ILINDEN
SPORTS
CENTRE

SUNDAY
9TH MAY
3PM

CLUB WELCOME

Ordinarily, we would be welcoming everyone to the Ilinden Sports Centre for this exciting clash. Unfortunately, due to the events that took place a fortnight ago, the game will be viewed only through the npl.tv platform.

We are deeply saddened at what transpired. We hope that it won't be too long before we are once again able to have spectators at our fixtures.

We will continue to work with Football NSW and the authorities to bring to justice those who's conduct tarnished our club and our game.

On the football front, this is an important game as we hit the half way mark of the season. We are currently in second position but the table is close and congested.

On the player front, we say farewell and thank you to departing players Kyle Cimenti and James Temelkovski. We wish them all the best with their new challenges. We welcome back a familiar face, Jordan Figon. Its great to have Figs back at our club. Stay tuned for further player announcements.

On the coaching front, we welcome to our under 20's experienced coach Jeff Suzor. There is already a visible change in that team as evidenced Saturday night against Mt Druitt. We are confident they will continue to improve.

We ask that you all continue to support the club. We ask that you continue to support our wonderful sponsors:

MATCH PREVIEW

Rockdale Ilinden will be out to reclaim their spot on top of the ladder with a win against Sydney FC on Sunday at Ilinden Sports Centre.

A 1-1 draw against Mt Druitt allowed Blacktown to first place on the ladder, and Rockdale will know any further slip-ups won't go unpunished.

Tomoki Wada found the back of the net in Round ten, but Ilinden could not take the full three points after they conceded late on.

It was the second straight draw for the Steven Zoric coached side, who will set out to make a big statement against a struggling Sydney FC.

Brayden Sorge is one player whose contributions are often overlooked; however, the right back's supply from the flank and ability to lock down opposition wide players makes him a valuable asset.

One player that won't be kitting up for Zoric's side is ace marksman Kyle Cimenti. After starting off the season with a bang notching up 7 goals, his stellar performances were noticed by Macarthur Bulls coach Ante Milicic who have since offered him an A-League deal. A huge loss for the club no doubt but a returning Jordan Figon who has since come on board will add that experience up-front alongside Alec Urosevski and Amaury Gauthier.

Up against Rockdale will be a Sydney FC side in desperate need of a win.

The Young Sky blues have suffered a horror run of results and are slumped at the bottom of the competition ladder.

After a positive start to the season with a win in the opening round against Marconi, it has gone from bad to worse for the Jim van Weeren coached outfit.

Patrick Wood's brace was one positive from a disappointing performance last week.

The Sky Blues have registered their 23-year-old A-League marksman Trent Buhagiar to its NPL player roster for more game time. His blistering pace and eye for goal will no doubt be a massive plus for the young guns of FC.

Van Weeren's side knows how to score goals, so tightening up their defensive capabilities will be crucial to their fortunes.

Rockdale will be big favourites for this match at home, but Sydney FC has shown that they can be a thorn in the side of the competition's top teams.

They will need to bring nothing short of their best if they want to shake things up this week.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Mt Druitt Town Rangers 1 – Rockdale Ilinden 1 at Popondetta Park

Mt Druitt Town Rangers have fought back to snatch a 1-1 draw in a hard-fought clash with Rockdale Ilinden at Popondetta Park on Saturday night.

A Travis Oughtred headed goal in the 69th minute ensured the Rangers took home a point, cancelling out Rockdale midfielder Tomoki Wada's earlier strike.

Both sides had their chances to win the match late but were unable to find the back of the net.

Sydney FC 3 – Wollongong Wolves 5 at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre

Wollongong Wolves earned their third victory of the season with a 5-3 win against Sydney FC at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday

A brace to Marcus Beattie, as well as goals to Lachlan Scott, Nav Darjani, and Daniel Loe helped Wollongong claim a vital three points on the road.

Patrick Wood nabbed a brace for the home side but it wasn't enough for Sydney FC who remain slumped at the bottom of the ladder.

The win moves Wollongong up to eighth place on the competition ladder, four points outside the top five.
