CLUB WELCOME

Sydney FC welcomes Sydney United to today's games. We are excited to host the return fixtures between these two clubs, and to test ourselves against one of the competition's frontrunners in SU58FC. Our opponents will be eager to continue their strong recent form into the second half of the season, as they look to compete at the top of the table. Equally, we hope to build on our own improving performances and that our players will continue to develop individually and as a team. These are surely important games for all involved, which will make for hard-fought and engaging football. We look forward to an enjoyable evening.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC will be looking for an upset when they host the high flying Sydney United 58 at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre this Sunday night.

The Young Sky Blues ended their run of defeats last round with a 3-3 draw against Marconi Stallions.

While it was Sydney's first competition point since a 2-2 draw in round seven, coach Jim Van Weeran would not be impressed with the way his side spurned a 3-1 lead against the Stallions.

Adrian Segecic found the back of the net for the second straight week, while Luke Ivanovic and Callum Talbot also scored in the draw.

A-League rising star Ivanovic gives Van Weeran a top tier attacking weapon and gives the Young Sky Blues a whole new dimension to their forward line.

Looking to stop them will be a United 58 team sitting second on the table and on a three-game winning streak.

The Tomi Vidovic coached outfit have bounced back from their midseason slump and are back to their devastating best.

Patrick Antelmi and Chris Payne both found the back of the net in a 3-1 win against Sydney Olympic last round.

The duo are one of the most fearsome attacking partnerships in the competition and will be a headache for Sydney's defence to contain.

Devante Clut is another player the Young Sky Blues will need to keep an eye on, with the former A-League star able to both score and create goals.

Sydney United will be favourites for this clash and will be looking for a repeat of their dominant 5-2 victory against Sydney FC in round two.

The Young Sky Blues will need to bring their best if they are to cause an upset in what is sure to be an entertaining clash.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney FC 3 – Marconi Stallions 3 at Ilinden Sports Centre

Sydney FC and the Marconi Stallions concluded what was an entertaining round 12 of matches as the match ended in a thrilling 3-3 draw in Sunday's late fixture at the Ilinden Sports Centre.

The Young Sky Blues entered the game in last position but one would hardly have known as early in the second half Jimmy Van Weeren's men led 3-1 before an excellent fight back by Marconi, thanks to goals from Anthony Frangie and Marko Jesic.

Marconi have drawn eight matches this season and will be kicking themselves once again for not securing all three points.

That's 16 points out of a possible 24 that have gone begging for the Stallions.

Sydney United 3 – 1 Sydney Olympic at Sydney United Sports Centre

Three second half goals has helped Sydney United 58 cruise to a 3-1 win against rivals Sydney Olympic at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday.

Adrian Vlastelica opened the scoring early in the second half before Chris Payne and Patrick Antelmi wrapped up the win for the home side.

Mo Adam netted a consolation goal in the dying stages for Olympic, but it was too little too late for the visitors who were no match for a fired up united 58 outfit.

The win moves United 58 to second on the ladder, only one point behind league leaders Blacktown City.
