MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney Olympic will be determined to take all three points from reigning premiers Rockdale Ilinden when the two teams go head to head at Belmore Sports Ground this Sunday.

Back-to-back losses from Olympic has meant they've dropped out of the top five, and coach Ante Juric knows he must motivate his players before it is too late.

The 3-1 loss to Sydney United 58 was a confidence-sapping defeat, and the pressure is now on veteran players such as Jason Madonis and Thomas Whiteside to get the team through this tough patch.

Mo Adam netted another goal after coming on as a substitute against United 58, showing his ability to impact a match.

Silly mistakes proved very costly for Olympic in their round 12 defeat so expect Juric to get the side to focus on the fundamentals.

They will be up against a Rockdale Ilinden team that has fallen from the top spot after a run of three draws in their past four matches.

Coach Steve Zoric must get his team scoring more freely and not relying too much on star frontman Alec Uroevski.

Michael Neill is one player who could be a gamechanger for Rockdale this weekend, with the winger challenging opposition defenders with his crossing and speed on the ball.

Olympic will need to lift their performances if they're to snatch an upset against Rockdale, who will come into this game as favourites.

Sydney United 3 – 1 Sydney Olympic at Sydney United Sports Centre

Three second half goals has helped Sydney United 58 cruise to a 3-1 win against rivals Sydney Olympic at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday.

Adrian Vlastelica opened the scoring early in the second half before Chris Payne and Patrick Antelmi wrapped up the win for the home side.

Mo Adam netted a consolation goal in the dying stages for Olympic, but it was too little too late for the visitors who were no match for a fired up united 58 outfit.

The win moves United 58 to second on the ladder, only one point behind league leaders Blacktown City.

Wollongong Wolves 1 – Rockdale Ilinden 1 at Albert Butler Memorial Park

Rockdale Ilinden has fought back to snatch a point in a hard-fought 1-1 draw with Wollongong Wolves at Albert Butler Memorial Park on Sunday.

A screamer from Patrick Savor late in the second half was enough to secure a point for the reigning champions as they battled back after conceding not long after the interval.

Wollongong thought they had done enough for the win after Lachlan Scott put the home side ahead after 50 minutes, but it wasn't to be as Rockdale struck late to ensure both teams shared the spoils.
