MATCH PREVIEW

Mt Druitt Town Rangers will be out to bounce back with a big win against Sutherland Sharks at Popondetta Park on Saturday night.

The Rangers suffered a shock 5-2 defeat to bottom side Sydney FC last week despite leading 2-0 going into the halftime break.

It was a significant blow to Mt Druitt's finals hopes and meant they dropped down to seventh on the ladder and have an almighty week ahead of them as following this match the club will prepare for their do or die FFA Cup Round 7 clash against Rockdale Ilinden at Popondetta on Wednesday at 7:30pm.

Coach Stewart Montgomery will be leaning on defensive leaders Tarek Elrich and Travis Oughtred to stiffen up the Rangers at the back after last week's second-half capitulation.

Jack Stewart has been the man in attack this season, and he will need to add to his goals tally if the Rangers are to take the three points.

Sutherland's opponents will be looking to replicate their 4-1 win against Mt Druitt back in round four.

The Sharks have slumped to the bottom of the ladder after suffering a 2-0 loss at home to APIA last week.

It was Sutherland's seventh straight week without a win, and coach Nick Dimovski will be calling on his players to find a winning edge to end the streak.

Jonathan Grozdanovski had a couple of great chances to score last week and will be itching to add to his tally after going so close against APIA after coming on as a substitute while James Andrew is looming once again as the Shire's go to man along with midfield hard-man Chris McStay.

Anthony Bouzanis also had a solid game last week, making several vital saves. His performance between the sticks this week could be the difference between a win or a loss for Sutherland.

Mt Druitt will be favourites at home; however, Sutherland has shown they know how to win against the Rangers.

It is sure to be an entertaining contest.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney FC 5 – Mt Drutt Town Rangers 2 at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre

A second-half onslaught has helped Sydney FC stun Mt Drutt Town Rangers 5-2 at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

The Young Sky Blues scored five unanswered goals in the second stanza to come back from 2-0 down at the break and notch their first win since round three

A much-changed Sydney FC outfit, incorporating several U-18 players, fell behind to first-half strikes from Jason Perez strike and Mitch Smith.

However, a Clayton Taylor goal on the hour mark turned the momentum in the home side's favour with Thomas Fay netting a hat-trick in just over ten minutes before Adrian Segecic wrapped up an incredible victory with a goal in the closing stages.

Sutherland Sharks 0 – APIA Leichhardt 2 at Seymour Shaw Park

APIA Leichhardt picked up a vital three points as it asserted itself into the top five of the NPL NSW Men's competition with a 2-0 win against Sutherland Sharks at Seymour Shaw Park on Saturday.

The Sharks failed to back up their rock-solid performance against Sydney United 58 back on their home ground this afternoon conceding late goals to Harry Callahan and Peter Kekeris which rounded up a good week for the Inner West club.

The Sharks best chances came through from the set piece through Brendan Hooper in the second half but they paid the price for two late defensive lapses as APIA secured all three competition points.
