CLUB WELCOME

We welcome all players, staff, and supporters to our Round 17 clash against Sydney United.

With the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's Competition nearing the end, each game counts with points making a difference for each team. Coming from a tough loss against Wollongong Wolves last week, the Bulls prepare for another difficult match against Sydney United who are at the top of the table.

We again would like to thank all our sponsors, volunteers, family, and friends of the players for their ongoing support during the season and hope to see you all at the match!

MATCH PREVIEW

Northbridge Bulls will be determined for a repeat of their 5-1 thrashing of Sydney United 58 when the two sides face on Sunday at Sydney United Sports Centre.

The Bulls suffered a heartbreaking 3-2 defeat to Wollongong Wolves last round which was their first defeat in over five weeks.

Northbridge shocked the competition back in round six when they dismantled the then competition leaders and coach Mile Sterjovski will surely be using that performance to inspire his troops this time around.

Rory Jordan has been one of the Bulls' stand out performers this year and the attacker will be a handful for the United 58 defence.

Bul Juach is another player to watch out for and comes into this game on the back of a strong display in round 16.

United 58 will be out for revenge in this game with that embarrassing round six defeat surely not forgotten by coach Tomi Vidovic and his squad.

Sydney United 58 are in second place on the competition ladder, two points behind Blacktown City, and need a win to stay in the premiership race.

Tariq Maia scored a thrilling late winner for United 58 last week as they snatched a 1-0 win against Marconi.

Defender Adrian Vlastelica was a beast in the backline during that victory and will need to step up again to stop Northbridge's free-scoring attack while the club is hoping to have Matt Sim back from injury.

This game will mean a lot for United 58 but if they're not careful the Bulls have shown what they're capable of.

Don't miss this clash which could have a big say in the race for the premiership.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Northbridge FC – Wollongong Wolves at Sydney United Sports Centre

A man of the match performance from Leroy Jennings has spurred Wollongong Wolves to a dramatic 3-2 win against Northbridge Bulls on Monday.

Jennings was in fine form as he scored two and set up a last gasp winner for Stefan Dimoski as the Wolves snatched all three points at the death.

The free-scoring winger opened Wollongong's account after only seven minutes but Northbridge hit back courtesy of a Nikola Djordjevic own goal.

Northbridge found themselves ahead heading into the break after a classy finish from Kyle Cimenti.

Wollongong turned the tide in the second half with an early goal from Jennings, before he capped off his exceptional night by setting up Stefan Dimoski for a dramatic last gasp winner.

Sydney United 58 1 – Marconi Stallions 0 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 has snatched a dramatic late winner to claim a 1-0 victory against local rivals Marconi Stallions at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday.

United 58 substitute Tariq Maia combined with Chris Payne and Patrick Antelmi to seal the win after a hard-fought battle with plenty of chances for both teams.

The offside flag was a source of pain for both sides, as goals to United's Payne and Marconi's Stefan Nikolic were disallowed.

It could prove to be a vital three competition points for United 58 as they keep pace with Blacktown City in the Premiership race.
