MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC will be determined to end their winless run when they host Mt Druitt Town Rangers at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

The Young Sky Blues were seconds away from claiming their first win since round three last week until they conceded a dramatic equaliser to Northbridge Bulls in the game's final play.

The 2-2 draw was an unfortunate result for the Jim van Weeran coached side, who have suffered some wretched results this season.

However, there were some bright signs against Northbridge, and Sydney will be trying their best to build on their last result.

Corey Hollman had a stand out performance against the Bulls, scoring a stunning solo goal.

Callum Talbot was another player who excelled in week 14 and will be out to back it up again this round.

Sydney will be up against a Mt Druitt outfit that comes into this game in fourth position after a big win in round 14.

The Rangers were too strong for Wollongong Wolves in a 3-0 win thanks to a Jack Stewart brace and a goal from Fumoto Kamada.

Stewart has been a shining light in attack this season, and he will be tough to stop again this round.

The clean sheet against Wollongong is sure to have put a smile on coach Stewart Montgomery's face, and he will be pushing his defenders to repeat that feat against Sydney.

The Rangers will be favourites for this match despite being on the road, but don't write off a Sydney FC upset.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Northbridge Bulls 2 – Sydney FC 2 at Sydney United Sports Centre

A Jake Jovanovski header deep into injury time has helped Northbridge Bulls snatch a dramatic 2-2 draw against Sydney FC at Sydney United Sports Centre on Saturday.

Jovanovski's 94th minute headed goal denied the Young Sky Blues their first win since round 3 as the Bulls fought back from behind twice to snatch a vital competition point.

Sydney FC took a 1-0 lead into the break thanks to a Clayton Taylor strike but Northbridge hit back after the interval through Lachlan Sepping to level the score.

With only six minutes left on the clock, Corey Hollman put Sydney in front and on the cusp of an incredible victory.

However, it wasn't to be for the Young Sky Blues as Jovanovski found the back of the net in the dying seconds to secure an incredible late equaliser for Northbridge.

Mt Druitt Town Rangers 3 – Wollongong Wolves 0 at Popondetta Park

Mount Druitt Town Rangers secured a vital 2-0 success against Wollongong Wolves to keep their top five hopes alive at a frosty Popondetta Park

The Rangers got themselves back in the winner's circle with a pair of second-half goals from star striker Jack Stewart, while a late Fumoto Kamada strike ensured the home side took all three points.

Earlier custodian Carlos Saliadarte saved a spot-kick which helped to kickstart their revival in the second half.

Wollongong Wolves will be disappointed to miss their chance to secure a spot in the top five of the National Premier Leagues Men's competition.

They did have a spot-kick for Lachlan Scott which was saved at the start of the second half which was their best chance.
