CLUB WELCOME

We welcome all players, staff and supporters to our Round 16 clash against our cross-town rivals, Marconi Stallions FC. The National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition is shaping up to be the most pulsating competition in recent years and we're relishing each game, eager to display our brand of football and to win. So far, each team has demonstrated their ability to surprise their opponents and by embedding their own style of play in every fixture and we've certainly witnessed some memorable performances. Sydney United 58 FC is about winning, and winning our way and with a strong sense of identity and determination, we look forward to implementing our game from kick-off!

We again would like to thank our loyal sponsors, members, volunteers and fanbase for their fantastic support during the season.

Blacktown City FC 2 – Sydney United 58 0 at Lily Homes Stadium

A gutsy Blacktown City FC have returned to the top of the National Premier Leagues NSW ladder with a 2-0 win against Sydney United 58 FC in front of a strong crowd at Lily Homes Stadium.

The win was a huge three competition points for City who took an early lead through Jak O'Brien before Daniel Collins wrapped up the win in front of a passionate home crowd on 'Back to Blacktown day' in the dying minutes.

United 58 suffered a costly early injury as Matt Sim was forced from the field inside the first five minutes with the visitors struggling to rediscover their rhythm.

Patrick Antelmi had a handful of chances to find the back of the net but was unable to score against his former club Blacktown who went on to take a huge win in the context of the premiership race.

Marconi Stallions 2 – Northbridge FC Bulls 2 at Marconi Stadium

A ten-man Marconi Stallions have fought back to snatch a dramatic 2-2 draw against Northbridge Bulls in a wild and at times fiery clash at Marconi Stadium on Sunday.

The Stallions fought back from 2-0 down to secure their tenth draw of the season in a match which had a little bit of everything.

Goals to Northbridge's Kyle Cimenti and Stephan De Robillard had the Bulls on track for a sensational upset, but Marconi's Mitchell Mallia and Marko Jesic found the back of the net on each side of the interval to secure the home side another competition point.

The incredibly fiery match saw eight yellow cards and two red cards awarded, with Northbridge Bulls coach Mile Sterjovski and Marconi Stallions forward Anthony Frangie both sent from the field in the late stages of the game.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 will be fighting to reclaim first place on the ladder with a win against local rivals Marconi Stallions at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday.

United 58 dropped to second after they suffered a 2-0 loss at the hands of Blacktown City last week.

The Tomi Vidovic coached side will throw everything forward this week to keep their premiership pursuit on track.

Goals were at a premium for United 58 last week, with strikers Patrick Antelmi and Chris Payne unable to find the back of the net.

They will be fired up to add to their tally once more this week.

Defender Jacob Poscoliero will play a significant role in tying down a shifty Marconi attack, with the former Central Coast Mariners stopper's considerable experience a considerable advantage.

Marconi comes into the match after an incredible tenth draw of the season as they fought back to claim a 2-2 interest against Northbridge.

It was a drama-filled clash with Anthony Frangie sent off and, as a result, will not be available for this week's match.

The Stallions have been unable to consistently put together a full 90-minute performance this season, with their moments of brilliance enough to help them snatch a point more often than not.

Coach Peter Tsekenis will once again try to unlock his side's potential, leaning on veterans such as Marko Jesic to lead the charge.

Mitch Mallia was back on the scoresheet again in Round 15, and he will be hoping to carry on his recent solid form this week.

Marconi played arguably its best match of the season against United 58 when they snatched a 2-0 win back in round five.

United 58 will be favourites, but that round five wins is proof Marconi knows what it takes to defeat their rivals.
