CLUB WELCOME

---

Good evening and welcome to Cromer Park for tonight's National Premier League NSW Men's 2022 match between Manly United and Northbridge Bulls.

It's great to be back at Cromer Park after four weeks on the road as we take on the Bulls in the unfamiliar setting of Cromer Park No. 2 while the synthetic field redevelopment enters its final stages.

A special Thank You to Football NSW for understanding the recent rain has pushed the delivery of the pitch back so we take on Northbridge on the outside field.

In just a few short weeks our recent redevelopment will be finished, and we will boast a football facility the envy of all clubs in the NPL competition with a newly-laid synthetic main field and a renovated Clubhouse with a social club and rehabilitation facilities adjacent to Cromer Park No. 1.

Manly United returns home after four weeks on the road where a win against Sydney Olympic was followed by defeats to APIA and Sutherland before last weekend's 2-2 draw with Sydney FC at Ilinden Sports Centre.

Last weekend Manly United twice came from behind to share the points with the undefeated Sydney FC with Matt Sim and Jimmy Oates finding the back of the net.

Manly United was unlucky not to take all three points with a string of chances going astray.

Today's opponents got their campaign off the ground last weekend with a hat trick from Rory Jordan setting up a 4-2 win over Sydney United. The victory lifted Northbridge off the foot of the table and sets up a good contest tonight.

Good luck to both teams and we hope you all enjoy the match and then relax after the game in the Social Club, The Far Post!

MATCH PREVIEW

For the first time this season Manly United will be the hosts at Cromer Park as they take on Northbridge Bulls in Round 5.

The Northern Beaches outfit started the season well with a win over Sydney Olympic in Round 1, but haven't been able to take hold of a victory since.

A late equaliser saw them take a point out of a tough match against Sydney FC and will likely give them some hope that they can get back to winning ways.

Seiya Kambayashi was a stand-out for Manly in Round 4 and will be one to watch against Northbridge on Saturday, alongside NPL stalwart Matt Sim, and Jimmy Oates, who managed the injury time goal last week.

Northbridge will be on cloud 9 heading into this clash, after a massive 4-2 victory over a strong Sydney United 58 squad.

It took a while for the Bulls to kick into gear this season, with three losses to start the season, but their victory at the weekend lifted off the bottom of the ladder.

Rory Jordan is the man of the moment for the Bulls after a Round 5 hat-trick - the first in the Bulls' history in the competition - and was the lone Bulls' representative in the Team of the Week. Jed Drew also impressed last weekend and will be one to watch in this clash.

Will the big win buoy Northbridge through a tough trip to Manly or will Cromer Park bring some magic to Manly's campaign?

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney FC 2 – Manly United FC 2 at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre

A stoppage-time equaliser from Manly United captain James Oates halted Sydney FC's charge and saw Sunday evening's NPL NSW Men's clash finish 2-2.

Oates rose highest to send Seiya Kambayashi's last-ditch corner home with a fine glancing header as Manly came from behind twice to earn a late share of the points.

The late equaliser will give Manly United a bit of extra confidence heading into Round 5 after their strong start to the season has fallen away, while Sydney FC's impressive start to the season has been halted but the young sky blues still head into Round 5 undefeated.

Northbridge Bulls FC 4 – Sydney United 58 FC 2 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Northbridge Bulls have secured their first win of the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's season with a convincing 4-2 victory over Sydney United 58 at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday afternoon with a cameo performance from skipper Rory Jordan.

The Bulls entered Round 4 of the competition without a single point, up against a strongly fancied Sydney United 58 side at Edensor Park, but a second-half Rory Jordan hat-trick and a strike from the impressive Jed Drew saw the youngsters complete a four-goal haul.

Two goals to United 58's Chris Payne were not enough to keep them in the game as their strong start to the season fell away.
