CLUB WELCOME

We welcome all players, staff, and supporters to Round 4 fixture against Sydney United.

After a disappointing couple of weeks, we are looking forward to improving our performance against Sydney United.

It will be a very difficult game especially with the momentum they've created after 3 games.

They're tipped to be one of the contenders for the title so the pressure lies with them.

Once again, a big thanks to all our sponsors, volunteers, family, and friends of the players for their support during the season so far and hope to see you all at the match!

MATCH PREVIEW

The bottom of the table will face up against the top in this clash between Northbridge Bulls and Sydney United 58 on Sunday afternoon.

United 58 will be able to take a home crowd advantage in the clash as they look to continue their strong start to the season, while Northbridge look to earn their first points in 2022.

Having conceded nine goals in the opening three rounds, the Bulls will need to tighten up their defence against the impressive forward line of United 58.

As they settle into the season, now would be a great time for the youngsters to find their form and show they belong in the men's competition, meanwhile United 58 will be looking for another win to secure their place as Premiership contenders in 2022.

In a star-studded team it's hard to pick standout players, but the return of Patrick Antelmi as a starter proved valuable in Round 3 and will be crucial to scoring plenty of goals for United 58.

Midfield maestro Glen Trifiro continues to pull the strings alongside Devante Clut while skipper Adrian Vlastelica and Yianni Fragogiannis continue to do their bit in defence, leading from the back.

Northbridge Bulls captain Rory Jordan will be one to watch for the youngsters as he looks to bring out the best of the talented players around him with the likes of Anthony Sparacino and James Cakovski others to look out for.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney Olympic 2 - Northbridge Bulls 0 at Belmore Sportsground

Sydney Olympic proved too strong for Northbridge Bulls at Belmore Stadium on Sunday afternoon, with goals to Roy O'Donovan and Adam Parkhouse securing a 2-0 win.

It could have been more if not for wayward finishing, but the home side did enough to garner their first win and precious three points of the campaign to add to their solitary point from the last round.

Olympic now have one loss, one draw and one win so far in their campaign, while Northbridge remain at the bottom of the NPL NSW Men's ladder without a point heading into Round 4.

Sydney United 58 2 - Mt Druitt Town Rangers 2 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 and Mt Druitt Town Rangers played out an entertaining 2-2 draw at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday afternoon, with the visitors coming from behind twice to get their first points of the season.

United 58's Glen Trifiro opened the scoring for the hosts with a magnificent free kick, shortly before Mt Druitt's John Roberts levelled the score with a header.

Patrick Antelmi converted from the penalty spot at the hour mark to send United 58 into the lead but it was answered in the 67th minute, as Louis Khoury capped off a brilliant game with the second equaliser for the visitors.

Mt Druitt Town Rangers have grabbed a point from the opening three rounds, having conceded 11 goals, while the draw adds to Sydney United 58's formidable start to the season, leaving them undefeated heading into Round 4.
