2022 - ROUND 05

CLUB WELCOME

We welcome all of our supporters, sponsors and members to the Ilinden Sports Centre for this round 4 fixture against Mt Druitt Town Rangers.

We come into this fixture following an unlucky 2-2 away draw against Marconi. It was game in which we created plenty of chances and that we really should of put to bed before they equalised. That said, the performance was a continuation of the strong showing the week before against APIA. We will be looking to make it 2 home wins to start our season.

Our opponents are always up for the battle and games against Mt Druitt are strongly contested.

It promises to be a great game and we hope to see another strong crowd like we saw in round 1 when we officially opened our photo wall inside the club house. It is a wonderful addition to our facility and pays respect to the many former great teams and players over the years.

Away from first grade, our youth are back in action after their last round of matches were cancelled due to the weather.

Our SAP were fortunate to be able to relocate what was to have been an away fixture to a home fixture.

Once again, we would like to thank our wonderful sponsors:

MATCH PREVIEW

Rockdale will be hoping to keep Mt Druitt Town Rangers without a win as they host them at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre this weekend.

After a late goal against them saw Rockdale share points in their draw with Marconi, they will be hoping to secure their status as contenders in the competition with a win this weekend.

With a number of new signings, coach Steve Zoric has said the team is starting to find their rhythm and will be using that as they match up against Mt Druitt.

Alec Urosevski scored a double against Marconi last week and will be hungry for more goals moving forward, supported by a number of impressive players like Mitchell Stamatellis, Tomoki Wada, Chris McStay and Jaden Casella.

Mt Druitt will be desperate for a win as they head to Rockdale on Sunday afternoon, with just a single point to their name heading into Round 5.

With some impressive attacking prowess in the form of Jack Stewart, John Roberts, Bul Juach, Fumoto Kamada, Louis Khoury and Diogo Barbosa, they certainly haven't struggled to score goals with nine goals so far this season.

Despite having scored nine goals from four games, they have let in fourteen - something they will need to sure up against a dynamic Ilinden side.

Will Mt Druitt be able to secure a win in Round 5 or will Rockdale come out on top?

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Marconi Stallions FC 2 – Rockdale Ilinden FC 2 at Marconi Stadium

It was a thrilling clash between Marconi Stallions and Rockdale Ilinden on Saturday night as both sides shared points in a fierce 2-2 draw.

In Marconi's first home game of the 2022 season, Peter Tsekenis' troops put on an entertaining display to equalise twice and end the game with a draw.

Goals to Marconi captain Marko Jesic and Nathan Millgate were enough to cancel out an Alec Urosevski double in the physical encounter that saw six cautions dished out.

Mt Druitt Town Rangers FC 2 – Sutherland Sharks FC 3 at Popondetta Park

Sutherland Sharks made it back-to-back wins after a 3-2 victory over Mt Druitt Town Rangers under the Friday night lights at Popondetta Park.

Jason Madonis opened the scoring for the visitors through a penalty kick but Mt Druitt Town Rangers battled hard and found a first half equaliser through Jack Stewart from a well-worked goal.

James Andrew made it 2-1 for the Sharks and substitute Mitch Smith took it to three with a strike against his old side.

The hosts pulled themselves back within one late in the piece through Fumoto Kamada but they still are searching for their first win of the year.

For Sutherland, it was a solid performance to register back-to-back wins as they have slowly shown to the rest of the NPL NSW Men's competition they really mean business.
