2022 - ROUND 03

CLUB WELCOME

This weekend will see Sutherland Sharks take on Manly United in what will be the “Battle of the Beaches”, which in the past has always produced a high quality closely contested game. We welcome their players, officials and supporters to the Home of the Sharks.

In round 2 Nick Dimovski’s team worked extremely hard in another entertaining match only to narrowly go down to Sydney United 2-3, lamenting after the game, Nick said that “ he was very happy with the effort of his players, however, certain moments in the game put us under pressure and to win football matches in this league we will need to minimise our mistakes and take every chance on offer to score.”

Manly United will be coming to Seymour Shaw ready to bounce back after a 0-1 loss to Apia last week so we are prepared for another classic match with both teams fighting for the win.

Tonight’s entertainment will see our u10 SAP teams displaying all of their ball mastery skills which they continue to work on in their development as footballers and future Sharks.

MATCH PREVIEW

In their third home game in as many weeks, Sutherland will be hoping they can secure their first win in front of their home fans as they host the boys from the Northern Beaches.

Sutherland have suffered two 3-2 defeats in their opening games and will be hoping to convert their scoring potential into a win against Manly United.

Jason Madonis has been a major positive force for the Sharks so far this season, with two goals in two games alongside James Andrew.

Alongside the two goal scorers, Sutherland have a squad of talented players that have given fans a taste of what they're capable of during the first two games, including Nick Sullivan, Chris Lindsay, Michael Neill and Mark Rodic.

With several big, new signings, Nick Dimovski will be hoping the chemistry of the team has settled to let the Sharks reach their full potential, while Manly United coach Adam Griffiths will be hoping to return to winning ways in Round 3.

After an opening-round win and a narrow Round 2 loss, Manly United will be looking to regroup as they travel to Sutherland on Saturday evening.

Manly United's Jimmy Oates saw his second successive Team of the Week selection this week and will be one to watch in the clash, alongside many impressive players including Matt Sim, Kieren Paull, Dom Ferguson and Jesse Piriz.

Will Sutherland score their first win of the season or will Manly United return to winning ways?

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Sutherland Sharks 2 – Sydney United 58 3 at Seymour Shaw

Sydney United 58 secured their second win of the season with a 3-2 victory over the Sutherland Sharks at Seymour Shaw on Saturday evening.

Seymour Shaw Park has been a happy hunting ground for Sydney United 58, having not lost in their last four visits with two wins and two draws, and the latest encounter did little to change that in Round 2 of the NPL NSW Men's competition.

A late first-half equaliser from James Andrew to cancel out a super Glen Trifiro trademark goal gave the home team hope, but a cool penalty conversion from Chris Payne restored the lead for United 58 and a second-half strike from Kyle Cimenti gave the visitors a two-goal advantage.

Despite Jason Madonis managing to haul the Sharks back into the match from the spot, United 58 proved too strong and took away the three points from the match.

As United 58 proceed to Round 3 undefeated, Sutherland have now suffered two losses at the 3-2 scoreline, proving that they have the potential to score goals but will need to tighten up defensively as they move forward in the 2022 season.

APIA Leichhardt FC 1 – Manly United FC 0 at Lambert Park

As predicted, APIA Leichhardt FC may have unearthed a new young gun in the making as 17-year-old striker Nathaneal Blair scored the only goal of the match which gifted the Inner West club a 1-0 victory over Manly United.

The historic venue in Leichhardt hasn't been a happy hunting ground for the home side in recent years against the peninsular visitors – in fact, APIA Leichhardt had won only one of their last five encounters against Manly United at their home ground.

Going into the game Danial Cummins' team was out to turn around that poor run and that's exactly what they did with a hard-fought and, at times, tough game of football.

After having their Round 1 match washed out, the win gives APIA a valuable victory in their opening game of the season.
