2022 - ROUND 05

CLUB WELCOME

Having won our last 2 matches in dominant fashion, Nick Dimovski and his team will be very eager to continue their winning ways this week as we welcome the undefeated young guns Sydney FC, their coaches, staff and supporters to Seymour Shaw Park in what is sure to be another fascinating contest of football.

The Sharks are full of confidence playing a very attractive brand of football led by their inspirational playmaker Jason Madonis who has set the tone for the rest of the competition to follow, players such as Harry Callahan, Pat O'shea and Nick Sullivan are dominating the mid field and creating opportunities for our lethal strikers up front in James Andrew and Lukman Ahmed-Shaibu. Our discipline in defense will be tested today against a very sharp attacking side in Sydney FC, however, James Baldaccino, Mickey Niell and Mark Rodic will be up for the test. Our own young talents like Gabriel Contigiani and Luke Sauer will be looking to make their mark should the opportunity arise.

Our under 20's team has been decimated with injury and illness, however this will give opportunities to some of our young under 18 players to step up and be tested against a strong Sydney FC, Nelson Lam, Tye McGowan and Julian Tavorato will be looking to lead the side to victory under very adverse conditions.

We are very pleased to welcome the Sutherland Shire Mayor Carmelo Pesce and his Deputy Carol Provan as our guests today, along with all of our fantastic sponsors such as Pipe King, Oporto, Ace Gutters and Plane2Sea.

Our pre match and halftime entertainment will be provided by our exciting under 7 Skills Academy players who are developing their football talents under the careful guidance of Alan Edmonson.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sutherland return home to Seymour Shaw this weekend to host an undefeated Sydney FC side.

The Sharks have managed two wins in a row, the first against Manly United and then Mt Druitt at the weekend. After a rough start to the season with two losses at home, they will be hoping to show their fans that they are real contenders in 2022.

Harry Callahan's Round 3 double has kept eyes on him since, but with a strong squad after a pre-season recruitment blitz, there are plenty of players with potential to impress. Jason Madonis has been crucial to the Sharks success so far this season, with James Andrew also making a big impact - both featured in the Round 4 Team of the Week.

Sydney FC have been the dark horse of the competition in the opening four rounds, maintaining an undefeated streak against some of the league's most experienced and physical sides.

The technically-gifted side has shown they have plenty of impressive players to draw on throughout the year, with the likes of Corey Hollman, Jaiden Kucharski, Zac Sapsford, Patrick Wood and Adam Pavlesic putting on some quality performances so far. Hollman was the lone representative for the young sky blues in the Team of the Week after the team's 2-2 draw with Manly United last weekend.

Coming off a draw, Sydney FC will be eager to ensure their strong start doesn't slip away from them, while Sutherland will be hoping to continue the form they've put on display the last two weeks - who will come out on top?

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Mt Druitt Town Rangers FC 2 – Sutherland Sharks FC 3 at Popondetta Park

Sutherland Sharks made it back-to-back wins after a 3-2 victory over Mt Druitt Town Rangers under the Friday night lights at Popondetta Park.

Jason Madonis opened the scoring for the visitors through a penalty kick but Mt Druitt Town Rangers battled hard and found a first half equaliser through Jack Stewart from a well-worked goal.

James Andrew made it 2-1 for the Sharks and substitute Mitch Smith took it to three with a strike against his old side.

The hosts pulled themselves back within one late in the piece through Fumoto Kamada but they still are searching for their first win of the year.

For Sutherland, it was a solid performance to register back-to-back wins as they have slowly shown to the rest of the NPL NSW Men's competition they really mean business.

Sydney FC 2 – Manly United FC 2 at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre

A stoppage-time equaliser from Manly United captain James Oates halted Sydney FC's charge and saw Sunday evening's NPL NSW Men's clash finish 2-2.

Oates rose highest to send Seiya Kambayashi's last-ditch corner home with a fine glancing header as Manly came from behind twice to earn a late share of the points.

The late equaliser will give Manly United a bit of extra confidence heading into Round 5 after their strong start to the season has fallen away, while Sydney FC's impressive start to the season has been halted but the young sky blues still head into Round 5 undefeated.
