2022 - ROUND 02

CLUB WELCOME

Today we welcome the players, officials and supporters of one of our traditional rivals Sydney United 58 FC to Seymour Shaw stadium for our 2nd round clash in the NPL season.

Nick Dimovski and his coaching staff will be looking to secure their first win of the season after narrowly going down to Marconi Stallions in a hard fought 2-3 loss in round 1. Whilst last week's result was disappointing, the young Sharks showed lots of spirit and determination to fight for a result right to the end, almost scoring an equaliser at the death.

This week's game will no doubt throw up new challenges for The Sharks and we will be relying on the experience of Jason Madonis, Mickey Niell and James Baldacchino to dominate the game and free up the silky skills of players such as Nick Sullivan, Jeremy Cox and James Andrew all of whom can make their presence felt in front of goal.

This fixture has proven to be an exciting, action packed match in the past and we are expecting this tradition to continue tonight, we thank all of our sponsor's and supporters for coming down and making our home a fortress.

Our pre match and halftime entertainment will be provided by our under 8 SDS squads who will showcase their skills as they begin their football journey at the Sharks.

MATCH PREVIEW

Returning to Seymour Shaw for the second week in a row, Sutherland Sharks will be hoping a home-game advantage will give them an edge over a dominant Sydney United 58 outfit.

A tight and fiery clash with Marconi saw Sutherland’s Jason Madonis and James Andrew get on the scoreboard in the opening match, giving some assurance that they have plenty of potential for the upcoming season.

Madonis, who was featured in the team of the week, will be hoping to rally the Sutherland troops to take on United 58, who managed a win at home in their first round clash.

Coach Nick Dimovski is hoping for more from his new recruits Nick Sullivan, Harry Callahan and Michael Neil in a bid to thwart their opponents on Saturday.

With a 1-0 victory over a 9-man Wollongong squad, United gave a taste of what they are capable of with plenty of goal-scoring opportunities but were missing prolific goal-scorer Patrick Antlemi.

It is expected that Antelmi should return to the fold while the club continues to wait for paperwork to be finalised for their Japanese import Taisei Kaneko.

Captain Adrian Vlastelica, who netted the only goal of the match and put on a strong defensive showing, will have his squad in line to perform on the road to hopefully start a winning streak early in the season.

There was also a lot of excitement when United 58 unleashed a 16-year-old young gun in Ayouk Mow who could make a cameo appearance against the Sharks.

Will Sutherland be able to use their fresh faces to throw off Sydney United’s stable squad or will United 58 continue their winning ways?

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Marconi Stallions 3 – Sutherland Sharks 2 at Seymour Shaw Park

The opening match of the 2022 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition saw the Marconi Stallions eclipse Sutherland Sharks 3-2 in a high-octane game that had all fans in the stands on the edge of their seats.

While Marconi generally held control of the match, a red card to central defender Roberto Speranza saw Sutherland with an opportunity to steal a late win.

Charles Lokolingoy was a saving grace for the Stallions, netting two goals and creating an abundance of goal-scoring opportunities. His goals, along with a penalty converted by captain Marko Jesic was enough to outweigh goals from Sutherland's Jason Madonis and James Andrew.

Sydney United 58 1 – Wollongong Wolves 0 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Both teams put up a huge fight to kick off their 2022 campaign, but it was Sydney United 58 who came out on top with a 1-0 victory over a nine-man Wollongong Wolves on Sunday afternoon.

Wollongong's Banri Banaizumi and Sanna Stevenson were both sent from the field in the second half of the match, leaving the Wolves down to just nine men as they fought to answer a strike from Sydney United 58 captain Adrian Vlastelica.

The fiery match ended with just the one goal, with the home team securing an important round 1 victory to set the tone for the season under new coach Joe Haywood.
