2022 - ROUND 01

CLUB WELCOME

The Club welcomes you to the 2022 season! After a long-awaited return to football, we are proud to see all our SAP, Youth and Senior squads back in action. Today, our senior squads open the FNSW NPL competition against Wollongong Wolves, which will surely produce two entertaining matches against our south-coast opponents. This will be our 1st Grade Head Coach, Joe Haywood's first competitive game in charge, by which we wish him, our staff and players the best of luck.

Your continued support is invaluable to us, to help us grow as a club, pushing to excel in all departments on and off the field. We extend a big thank you to those who helped with the maintenance and general operations of the facility over the past few months.

MATCH PREVIEW

It's finally here - the return of the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition!

After the 2021 season was cut short due to Covid, our 12 teams have been working hard for months to prepare for Round 1 and are eager to get back on the pitch this weekend.

Let's hope the weather eases off as the best NPL competition in Australia kick's off.

Another exciting clash will be between the almost unchanged Sydney United 58, under the new leadership of Joe Haywood, and a reinvigorated Wollongong Wolves.

After a very strong showing in 2021, Sydney United 58 will be looking to continue their good form and goal-scoring superstar Patrick Antelmi will be looking to start his race to the golden boot early.

He will be assisted by another sharpshooter in new recruit Kyle Cimenti with the two set to form a deadly combination if they click.

Wollongong will be hoping the extra experience they've brought in, along with their winning mentality, will lead them to victory and set the standard for an impressive season.

Luke Wilshire's troops understand its never easy getting points at Edensor Park but will hope the likes of Leroy Jennings and Lachlan Scott can fire-up the squad.

The Wolves will however be unable to call upon one of its brightest sparks in 2021 Bilal Belkadi who suffered a season ending injury during preseason.
