2022 - ROUND 07

CLUB WELCOME

Marconi Stallions FC welcome Manly United FC to the “Palace” for a crucial Round 7 clash tonight on Easter Saturday.

As Marconi Stallions were set for a big clash last weekend with Mt Druitt Town Rangers as both sides look to impress after rocky starts to the season, the match was called off due to the recent weather conditions.

The Stallions remain rejuvenated after a mid-week catch up match with Blacktown City FC and are ready for Round 7 with Manly United FC.

Sitting in forth position on the ladder, Manly have shown they have a lot of potential this season and will be hungry to ensure they continue to show their fans what they are capable of and backing up from their two recent wins.

A win would prove to be very valuable to the ninth-placed Stallions as they hope to pick up momentum, but will they be able to pull off an upset for Manly at home?

We will know at around 7:00pm if the Easter Bunny has been to Marconi Stadium and who will get the Easter Egg three points or will both teams have to share?

Marconi Stallions wish you all a Happy Easter!

MATCH PREVIEW

After a week off, Marconi will be eager to get back on the pitch and ready to host Manly United at 'The Palace' on Saturday night.

With Thomas James easing his way back into more gametime post injury, Marconi will be looking to him and Charles Lokolingoy to light up their attacking line, with the support of their ever-consistent captain Marko Jesic.

In ninth position on the ladder, Marconi have struggled to find consistency after a win in Round 1, and will have a short turn around from their mid-week match against Blacktown City will make it hard for the Stallions to back-up for Saturday, however the momentum from game time could give them an advantage on the weekend.

Manly United are sitting in fourth position with three wins so far this season from their six games played.

Their win over Wollongong for the first time since 2016 will give them confidence as they make the trek out west.

Jimmy Oates and Thomas Fay will be ones to watch for Manly after strong performances in Round 6.

With both teams possessing plenty of talent on the park, it will be a big match as Marconi fight for their first win at home.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

The Mt Druitt Town Rangers v Marconi Stallions match was washed out.

Manly United FC 2 – Wollongong Wolves FC 0 at Cromer Park Field 2

It was one for the history books with Manly United FC defeating Wollongong Wolves FC 2-0 on Saturday night for the first time since 2016.

Back on the unfamiliar ground of Cromer Park #2, it was an entertaining display from both sides, however goals to Manly United's Bruno Mendes and Thomas Fay would be enough to bring home the three points.

The 35th minute saw Brazilian maestro Bruno Mendes score his second goal in the Manly jersey for the 2022 NPL NSW Men's season.

A pass from Thomas Fay at the top of the box saw the Brazilian turn and slam the ball into the bottom left corner, giving the hosts the lead.

A long ball from Matt Sim in the 69th dropped over the top, finding Thomas Fay who, with pressure from the Wollongong defence, lobbed Wollongong keeper Hayden Durose to bring the score to 2-0.
