2022 - ROUND 08

CLUB WELCOME

We welcome all players, supporters and sponsors to our Round 8 clash against our cross-town rivals, Sydney United 58 FC. The National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition is shaping up to be the most pulsating competition in recent years and we're relishing each game, eager to display our brand of football and to win.

Sydney United 58 will make the short drive down Cowpasture Road to the 'Palace' full of confidence. While they have had their fair share of wins and losses, the Marconi Stallions FC tipped by many as the one to beat for this match, are yet to register a win since earlier this season. Three draws and two losses are what they have from their most recent five games.

Last week against Sydney Olympic, United 58 were unable to make their mark on the match, with Olympic's league-leading defence keeping out the home side. It was a very even start to the game, with both sides pressing at a fast pace throughout the majority of the first-half.

Tonight's match has a crucial three points for Marconi on the line that went begging in some ways, even though they have a game in hand as the Stallions face the daunting task of playing four games in two weeks: Blacktown City, Manly United, Sydney United 58 FC and Mount Druitt Town Rangers.

So far, each team has demonstrated their ability to surprise their opponents and by embedding their own style of play in every fixture and we've certainly witnessed some memorable performances. Good luck to both teams and we hope you all enjoy Saturday Night Football at Marconi Stadium.

MATCH PREVIEW

Marconi have put on some impressive performances in recent weeks but haven't been able to convert their chances leaving them without a win in five games.

The return of Thomas James from injury gave home fans a beacon of hope as the strong forward line looked poised to wreak havoc on the competition, but despite impressive attacking talent, the Stallions have struggled to find the winning form they need.

Taylor McDonald and Nenad Vekic both featured in the Round 7 Team of the Week, showcasing the talent in their defence, however they'll need to bring their A-game all over the park if they want to defeat Sydney United 58.

Coming off the back of a big 3-0 loss to Sydney Olympic with a red card to Yianni Fragogiannis in the final moments of the match, United 58 will need to use this clash to get back on track.

Inconsistency has plagued United 58 in the start of the competition and while they have shown their potential, they have struggled at times.

This match is historically a fiery feature and this Saturday promises a lot of entertainment as the two

Western Sydney sides go into battle as they look to find a win they both need to get on track for the season they have the potential for.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Marconi Stallions FC 1 – Manly United FC 1 at Marconi Stadium

Marconi Stallions and Manly United played out a 1-1 draw at Marconi Stadium on Saturday night in Round 7 of the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition.

In a game that could be best described with the old cliché 'game of two halves', Manly United tended to have the better of the first half, while Marconi clearly won the second stanza of play.

A spectacular goal to Lucas Rainbird was cancelled out by a Taylor McDonald finish to give the sides a goal apiece.

It was a crucial three points for Marconi that went begging in some ways, even though they have a game in hand as the Stallions face the daunting task of playing four games in two weeks: Blacktown City, Manly United, Sydney United 58 FC and Mount Druitt Town Rangers – as well as an FFA Cup clash.

Sydney United 0 – Sydney Olympic 3 at Sydney United Sports Centre

A Roy O'Donovan brace ignited a stellar team performance from Sydney Olympic, as they defeated Sydney United 58 3-0 on Easter Monday at Sydney United Sports Centre.

Olympic came into this match up with a three-game win streak and looked eager to make it four on the spin, as they continue to chase the top spot on the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's ladder.

Michael Glasslock opened the scoring for the visitors with a perfectly placed finish, shortly before Roy O'Donovan doubled Olympic's lead 15 minutes later and finished his double in the 66th minute as Olympic's continued persistence paid off.

United 58 were unable to make their mark on the match, with Olympic's league-leading defence keeping out the home side.
