2022 - ROUND 09

CLUB WELCOME

Marconi Stallions FC welcome Wollongong Wolves to the “Palace” for another crucial match, Round 9. Marconi Stallions are feeling confident and ready to make it their fourth win of the season after making it two in a row. There was plenty of action and excitement at the Palace last weekend as a late comeback from the visitors had home fans on the edge of their seats, but the hosts’ held on to secure the victory against Sydney United.

Charles Lokolingoy, Domenic Costanzo, Thomas James and Samuel Gulisano all added points to the scoreboard in the home side’s second win of the season against Sydney United, the first since their opening victory over Sutherland Sharks in Round 1.

The mid-week catch up match went exactly how they anticipated bringing home an additional three points with another 4-2 win against Mt Druitt Rangers thanks to a hat-trick from skipper Marko Jesic and some wizardry from Domenic Costanzo.

For Marconi Stallions coach Peter Tsekenis was pleased to take home the three points, “It is all about confidence at this point of the season. We know we can score goals but haven’t had a clean sheet thus far this season.”

BLAST FROM THE PAST

The first round match in the 2002/03 NSL season was played at Marconi Stadium with the Wolves visiting. Marconi, coached by Raul Blanco, comprised of Michael Turnbull, Chad Gibson, Shane Webb, Angelo Constanzo, Dominic Longo, Tony Perenich, Robert Enes, Alex Brosque, Steven Fitzsimmons, Grant Last, and Tony Sekulic. Mark Babic and Eric Anabalon replaced Constanzo and Fitzsimmons respectively.

The Wolves correspondingly were Andrew Crews, Liam Austin, Jacob Timpano, Robert Stanton, Alex Castro, Dustin Wells, Shane Lyons, Stuart Young, Naum Sekulovski, Buddy Farah, and David Huxley. Zeljko Babic, David Cervinski and Dean Heffernan subbed on for Austin, Timpano and Farah respectively with Ron Corry as coach. It did not take long before Marconi advanced to a one goal lead when in the seventh minute Brosque scored.

Gibson had passed to Perenich. He in turn from the edge of the penalty area chipped the ball to Brosque who proceeded to slot the ball home. The Wolves responded close to half time when a throw in reached Sekulovski. He swerved before powering in a left footed shot from an angle thirty metres out.

The ball veered in its trajectory and Turnbull parried it. However the ball spun upwards and over his head into the goal, much to his chagrin. Marconi had much of the first half play but went into the break at 1-1. The Wolves went into the lead on fifty-three minutes. Farah dispossessed Perenich with the ball falling to Sekulovski to bring up his brace when he let fly with a low shot that that at the far bottom corner of the goal.

Brosque got his brace and his team’s equaliser when Perenich sent through. Brosque controlled the ball before he fired past Crews. Lyons made a match saving tackle on Fitzsimmons however when parity was restored, each team had the lead at varying stages but could not go on to win and a share of the points occurred.

MATCH PREVIEW

Marconi recorded their first win since Round 1 last weekend and will be hoping to pick up momentum as they host Wollongong on Saturday night.

As the Wolves make the trip to The Palace they will face up against former members of the Wolf Pack Thomas James and Taylor McDonald in what is sure to be an entertaining clash.

Domenic Costanzo, Thomas James, Charles Lokolingoy and Connor Evans were standouts for Marconi in their Round 8 victory over Sydney United 58 and will be ones to watch in this match.

While they have seen the talent of James first-hand during his time in the Illawarra, the pace of Costanzo will likely rattle the Wolves’ defence as they look to hold out an attacking line that’s gelling together well under the leadership of Marko Jesic.

While Marconi showed what they’re capable of in Round 8, as did Wollongong with aq 3-0 victory over the Rangers.

Lachlan Scott and Nicholas Duarte were the starts of the show for Wollongong, while Darcy Madden proved a pillar of strength in defence.

The tidy Wollongong defence will need to hold out Marconi at home if they want to get some valuable points and jump the Stallions on the ladder this week.

That and the fact that they will be resetting once more after their midweek rescheduled fixture against Sydney Olympic will most certainly see a few tired bodies out there from the South Coast side.

Luke Wilkshire will look to possibly rotate a few players with this in mind.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Marconi Stallions FC 4 – Sydney United 58 FC 2 at Marconi Stadium

Marconi Stallions took all three points with a 4-2 victory over Sydney United 58 at Marconi Stadium on Saturday night in a six-goal thriller.

There was plenty of action and excitement at the Palace as a late comeback from the visitors had home fans on the edge of their seats, but the hosts' held on to secure the victory.

Charles Lokolingoy, Domenic Costanzo, Thomas James and Samuel Gulisano all added points to the scoreboard in the home side's second win of the season, the first since their opening victory over Sutherland Sharks in Round 1.

Two consolation goals to Kyle Cimenti got the visitors on the scoreboard late in the game but wasn't enough to change the result of the match.

The win, and successful attacking display, will give Marconi important momentum as they head into a make-up clash with Mt Druitt Town Rangers on Tuesday night.

While the performance will give Marconi positive momentum, the result will leave United 58 scratching their heads as they continue a lackluster run in the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition.

Wollongong Wolves 3 – Mt Druitt Town Rangers FC 0 at WIN Stadium

Wollongong Wolves secured a 3-0 win over Mount Druitt Town Rangers at WIN Stadium on Friday night.

Two goals to Lachlan Scott and one to Nicholas Duarte took the hosts to three as they held out Mt Druitt, who have been known for their high-scoring matches.

Scott would score the first of the match in the 29th minute as Senna Stevenson played the ball across to Scott centrally outside the box who speared his strike into the bottom-left corner.

The home side found the second goal from a corner in the 73rd minute, Duarte was found free in the middle and headed home.

Only three minutes after this, Wollongong added a third with Duarte causing problems again this time driving into the left of the box before sliding the ball across to Scott who passed it into the netting.
