MATCH PREVIEW

Northbridge Bulls will be hungry for another win after their 4-2 defeat of Sydney United 58 in Round 4 and, having proved that they can match up against the league heavyweights, they will need to bring their A-game against Blacktown City.

With four losses out of five matches, the Bulls will be looking to improve their performances after a rocky start to the season.

Having conceded 14 goals so far, defence will likely be the focus for the young squad as captain Rory Jordan will be looking to fire up his team to encourage a quality performance they showed glimpses of in their single win.

Blacktown City are coming off the back of a two-game losing streak and will be hungry to get back to winning ways against the young Bulls side.

With two wins to start the season, Blacktown City showed that they are contenders yet-again, but a week off with a number of players affected by Covid seems to have thrown the squad.

The ever-consistent club has plenty of talent to lean on with Dakota Askew being the standout of the team in their Round 5 clash.

Will Blacktown return to winning ways or will Northbridge manage to secure their second win against league heavyweights?

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Manly United FC 3 – Northbridge Bulls FC 0 at Cromer Park

Manly United marked their long-awaited return to Cromer Park with three late goals and a memorable victory over the Northbridge Bulls on Saturday night.

In a tight contest that was not entirely reflected by the eventual scoreline, Seiya Kambayashi, Bruno Mendes and Matt Sim all struck inside the final quarter of an hour to secure Adam Griffiths' men their second win of the season.

The fullback-turned-creative midfielder Kambayashi capitalised on a fortunate deflection in the area, which saw him slot home the breakthrough goal that his side had toiled for.

Just six minutes later, the Brazilian Mendes extended their lead by pouncing to convert his first goal for Manly United with a similarly cool strike.

And once it rained, it poured for Manly, with their top scorer Matt Sim getting in on the act three minutes later.

Sydney United 58 FC 2 – Blacktown City FC 1 at Blacktown City Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 came out on top in an intense fight against Blacktown City at Blacktown City Sports Centre on Sunday afternoon, with a 2-1 victory over the home side.

United 58's Kyle Cimenti opened the scoring in the 9th minute to give the visitors an early lead but it was swiftly answered by Blacktown City's Daniel Collins in the 15th minute.

Substitute Patrick Antelmi sealed the deal for United 58 in the 83rd minute to take all three points from the hard-fought battle.

The victory was crucial in United 58 regaining momentum after their loss to Northbridge Bulls in Round 4, while the loss is City's second loss in a row.
