2022 - ROUND 06

CLUB WELCOME

This Saturday we welcome the Players, Officials and supporters of the Sydney Olympic Football Club to Seymour Shaw Stadium. After last week's entertaining but disappointing result Nick Dimovski will be looking to get his side back on track against a very strong Olympic team who sit 1 point above Sutherland on the NPL ladder. We have shown plenty of attacking flare so far this season, we now have to eliminate the errors that have provided opportunities to our opponents. Our playing group are very motivated to turn around the loss of last week into a win today.

Our under 20's team showed great spirit last week only to concede late for a 2 all draw with Sydney FC, they will be looking to go one step further this week with a win and continue to build on their season as the competition moves forward.

Our pre-match and halftime entertainment will be provided by the Miranda Magpies Football Club under 9 team, who compete in the local shire competition, we look forward to cheering them on today!

Go Sutho!

MATCH PREVIEW

Sutherland Sharks will host Sydney Olympic on Saturday in what is set to be a hard-fought battle.

With mixed starts to their season, both sides have had moments of magic that have kept their hopes of successful seasons alive.

After two consecutive wins Sutherland fell away against a strong Sydney FC side in Round 5 and coach Nick Dimovski was quick to comment on his side's defensive weaknesses in his post-match interview.

This matchup should bring out the best in Jason Madonis as he squares up against his former club he spent many years battling for.

Sydney Olympic managed a win over Marconi Stallions in Round 5 and will be hoping to ride the wave of momentum to another win in Round 6.

Darcy Burgess was a stand out for Olympic, scoring and making a strong impact on the park. The tight defensive line of Olympic let in one late goal from Marconi but will be looking to keep the pace of James Andrew at bay in this clash.

A win will be valuable to both sides as they look to ensure they don't fall behind early in the season.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney FC 4 – Sutherland Sharks FC 3 at Seymour Shaw

A sizzling Patrick Wood first hat-trick was the headline as Sydney FC overcame a resurgent Sutherland Sharks defeating the Shire boys 4-3 in round 5 of the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition at Seymour Shaw on a crispy autumn Saturday afternoon at Seymour Shaw.

A first-half blitz from the visiting young guns saw Wood net three and a Jaiden Kurcharski strike in stoppage time had them 4-1 up at the break.

Sydney FC opened the scoring with a well-timed Wood strike before Lukman Ahmed-Shaibu levelled, but the visitors went on a goal scoring spree with another two for Wood and a late, late strike from Kurcharski.

James Andrew reduced the deficit after the restart, but it proved too big a hurdle for the Sharks to get over despite substitute Lachlan Everett netting to make for a grandstand finish.

Sydney Olympic FC 2 – Marconi Stallions FC 1 at Marconi Stadium

Sydney Olympic secured a vital 2-1 victory over Marconi Stallions at Marconi Stadium on Saturday evening.

Two goals to Olympic's Darcy Burgess and Oliver Puflett in the first stanza of play sealed the deal for the visitors before a very late consolation by Charles Lokolingoy.

Roy O'Donovan who fired into a Marconi player and the fortunate rebound reached Darcy Burgess who, in the 21st minute, fired straight into the back of the net with a nicely timed shot.

From a corner the ball was driven towards the Marconi goal only for Nenad Vekic to parry it away but his rejection went only as far as Oliver Puflett who drilled home for the visitors much to the dismay of the Marconi faithful.

In stoppage time Marconi scored a consolation goal as a corner reached Zac Cairncross in the box and his header went crashing into the crossbar. Lokolingoy, jogging on the spot, made sure the ball crossed the line as he bundled it over but it was too little, too late for Marconi.
