2022 - ROUND 11

CLUB WELCOME

Welcome to Marconi Stadium for Round 11, Marconi Stallions FC v Northbridge Bulls FC. With four consecutive wins and six games undefeated in the league, along with a midweek win in the Australia Cup, the Stallions are making a statement to the football community that they are real contenders in 2022.

Our Men's 1st Grade have turned their season around to which we hope we continue the good form in the coming weeks and finish the season strong. We currently sit in the top 5 with a good chance to make it to the semi finals. Our skipper Marko Jesic, being placed on the 'Team of the Week' two weeks in a row now, has put on a show with multiple goals each games which puts Marconi in a good position as we were tipped by many as the team to beat this year and judging by our recent results we look like keeping the tipping experts honest in their predictions. After the last weekends game v APIA, Marconi coach Peter Tsekenis was elated his side was able to continue their winning habit and added "We had a slow start without playing bad, but we believed in ourselves, we kept grinding and now we're getting the fruits and we'll keep rolling from here."

The Stallions are ready to perform a night full of football action and hope you all enjoy the match.

MATCH PREVIEW

Marconi will be looking to make it five consecutive in the NPL NSW Men's wins when they welcome Northbridge to 'The Palace' on Saturday night.

After an important 4-1 victory over APIA Leichhardt in Round 10, Marconi have plenty of momentum behind them which should help them as they look to extend their undefeated run.

Charles Lokolingoy and Nathan Millgate both represented the Stallions in the Team of the Week after impressive performances in Round 10 and will be among those to watch in the Marconi lineup alongside the likes of Marko Jesic, Connor Evans and Domenic Costanzo.

Their experience and physicality will be a stark comparison to the youth and technicality Northbridge will be leaning on as they look to get a win to lift them off the bottom of the ladder.

Having fallen to Sutherland last week, Northbridge will need to regroup as they prepare for the clash if they have any hope of crushing an in-form Marconi side.

The Bulls will be aided by the possible inclusion of a couple of senior youth stars who may well feature now that their A-League journey has ended.

Will experience be able to conquer youth or will Northbridge manage to end Marconi's momentum?

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Marconi Stallions FC 4 – APIA Leichhardt FC 1 at Marconi Stadium

Marconi Stallions secured their fourth consecutive win in the National Premier Leagues Men's competition, with a comprehensive 4-1 victory over APIA Leichhardt FC on Saturday night at Marconi Stadium in the 'Italian Derby'.

With four consecutive wins and six games undefeated in the league, along with a midweek win in the Australia Cup, the Stallions are making a statement to the football community that they are real contenders in 2022.

Marko Jesic converted a penalty chance against veteran shot-stopper Ivan Necevski to take a one-goal advantage to the break before Charles Lokolingoy converted a second from the spot early in the second half to double the lead for the hosts.

Jason Romero netted one in the 68th minute to keep the visitors in the game, but young-gun Domenic Costanzo scored a third for the hosts in the 75th minute to give the Stallions a bit of relief.

A third penalty in the final moments of the game was icing on the cake of the home side.

The convincing 4-1 scoreline over a dangerous APIA Leichhardt squad should give Marconi plenty of momentum as they approach the second leg of the competition.

Northbridge Bulls FC 1 – Sutherland Sharks FC 2 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Sutherland Sharks FC recorded their third win of the 2022 NPL NSW Men's campaign in a 2-1 win against Northbridge Bulls FC on Saturday afternoon at Sydney United Sports Centre.

Two desperate sides strode onto the park at Sydney United Sports Centre, aiming to get themselves back into the winner's circle and while Northbridge Bulls FC started the contest off brightly, they faded away against the Sharks' press.

Nick Sullivan drove home the opener before Lukman Ahmed-Shaibu slotted home after the break to give the Sharks a two-goal advantage.

Substitute Jed Drew did pull a goal back for the hosts but they lost Anthony Sparacino to a red card which didn't help their cause.

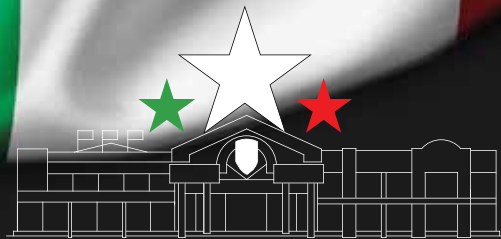

It will be a precious three points for Sutherland Sharks FC after their lean run in recent weeks.
