2022 - ROUND 11

CLUB WELCOME

After securing a valuable 3 points last week against a spirited Northbridge Bulls the Sutherland Sharks will be fighting hard to make it back to back wins when they take on the Wollongong Wolves at Seymour Shaw this afternoon.

The Sutherland Sharks Committee have decided to restructure the 1st team coaching ranks and Luis Contigiani along with Steve Gordon will be at the helm for the rest of the season as Nick Dimovski takes up a new role within the club. We thank Nick for his efforts with the 1st team and we look forward to him continuing his association with us in a broader Director of Football role.

A win for the Sharks will be crucial if we are to keep our semi final hopes alive and with injuries and illness our full squad will be tested this week. In particular 17 year old Jacob Cremen Cowan will be making his starting debut in goals stepping into the big boots of Anthony Bouzanis who is out with illness. It will be an exciting opportunity for Jacob to showcase his talents as one of our young up and coming players, and the second time this season we have given a starting debut to a 17yr old.

Our under 20's squad has suffered further setbacks with injuries and illness, however they continue to show their fighting spirit week in week out and today will be no different against the Wolves.

Our pregame and halftime entertainment will be provided by our under 9 Sap squads, we hope that all supporters both home and away enjoy the show. We thank all of our sponsors for their continued support and look forward to seeing you all at the game.

Go the Sharks!

MATCH PREVIEW

Both the Sutherland Sharks and Wollongong Wolves will be riding high on the winning feeling heading into this Round 11 clash at Seymour Shaw.

Both teams sit at the lower end of the table and will be hoping to build some momentum to give them a chance at finals football.

Sutherland’s Lukman Ahmed-Shaibu and Michael Neill were featured in the Round 10 Team of the Week after their performance against Northbridge and will be looking to repeat the performance this week.

Wollongong’s Josh Macdonald was also featured in the team after his side managed a crucial 3-1 victory against league heavyweights Blacktown City FC.

Luke Wilkshire’s move to the Central Coast Mariners in 2023 was the big story last week but rest assured ‘Wilko’ will be doing all that he can to guide his troops to a finals series finish in his last year with the club.

The Wolves have been riding high and will look at this match which is a derby of some sorts as a big three pointer in keeping that dream alive.

With a win to build on, will Sutherland or Wollongong manage to build crucial momentum heading into the second half of the season?

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Northbridge Bulls FC 1 – Sutherland Sharks FC 2 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Sutherland Sharks FC recorded their third win of the 2022 NPL NSW Men's campaign in a 2-1 win against Northbridge Bulls FC on Saturday afternoon at Sydney United Sports Centre.

Two desperate sides strode onto the park at Sydney United Sports Centre, aiming to get themselves back into the winner's circle and while Northbridge Bulls FC started the contest off brightly, they faded away against the Sharks' press.

Nick Sullivan drove home the opener before Lukman Ahmed-Shaibu slotted home after the break to give the Sharks a two-goal advantage.

Substitute Jed Drew did pull a goal back for the hosts but they lost Anthony Sparacino to a red card which didn't help their cause.

It will be a precious three points for Sutherland Sharks FC after their lean run in recent weeks.

Wollongong Wolves FC 3 – Blacktown City FC 1 at WIN Stadium

Wollongong Wolves secured an impressive 3-1 win over a 10-man Blacktown City at WIN Stadium on Friday night.

After a goalless first half, Wollongong opened the scoring early in the second period with Peter Simonoski scoring from long range.

Blacktown City equalised just after the hour mark through Mitchell Mallia before Wollongong retook the lead courtesy of former City star Leroy Jennings after Daniel Collins was sent off for the visitors.

Lachlan Scott also found the net for the home side with eight minutes to play to add to the side's advantage and cap off the match.
