CLUB WELCOME

Welcome back to the Sydney United Sport Centre, as new (old) Head Coach, Miro Vlastelica, takes on his first home game back. Last Friday against Manly FC, we saw right away the shift of the team and effect Miro had right away on the gents. They come into this fixture with all guins blazing, ready to redeem themselves and prove their worth as a top-of-the-table team. APIA won't go down without a fight, so we're in for a big clash! With the wet weather this week, let's see if SU58 can slide into the top half of the table.

MATCH PREVIEW

In their first home game since the departure of coach Joe Haywood, Sydney United 58 under Miro Vlastelica will be looking to make a statement as they take on league heavyweights APIA Leichhardt.

With a string of losses not reflecting the amount of talent they have on the field, it could be the challenge of an experienced team like APIA Leichhardt that gives United 58 the fire they need.

While United 58 will be looking to get an all-important victory before the season hits the halfway point, APIA Leichhardt will be hoping for a big win to reprieve them after their 4-1 loss to Marconi in Round 10 and keep them in the premiership race.

Lining up without Themba Muata-Marlow, who has been a constant pillar of strength for the inner west side throughout the season, APIA struggled against the Stallions, conceding three penalties and another goal.

While Romero scored a hat trick in Round 9, the dynamic attacker could only manage one at 'The Palace' and will be hungry to prove that he can consistently score as APIA head out to Sydney United Sports Centre.

With no Australia Cup journey to look forward to, all eyes will be fixed on APIA wanting to win silverware as the club expects trophies for 2022.

Both sides should bring out the best in each other in the clash as the historic teams match up in what is set to be a stellar match.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Manly United FC 1 – Sydney United 58 FC 0 at Cromer Park

Sydney United 58's woes continued as the former NSL giants suffered a 1-0 defeat at the hands of Manly United at the newly upgraded Cromer Park on Friday night in round 10 of the NPL NSW Men's competition.

A lone goal to Manly's Japanese star import Seiya Kambayashi was all it took for the Northern Beaches side to collect three points from the match as Sydney United 58 were unable to retaliate.

The win gives valuable points to Manly, while the loss for United 58 was not the start new interim coach Miro Vlastelica would have liked since stepping back into the head coaching role earlier this week following the departure of Joe Haywood.

Marconi Stallions FC 4 – APIA Leichhardt FC 1 at Marconi Stadium

Marconi Stallions secured their fourth consecutive win in the National Premier Leagues Men's competition, with a comprehensive 4-1 victory over APIA Leichhardt FC on Saturday night at Marconi Stadium in the 'Italian Derby'.

With four consecutive wins and six games undefeated in the league, along with a midweek win in the Australia Cup, the Stallions are making a statement to the football community that they are real contenders in 2022.

Marko Jesic converted a penalty chance against veteran shot-stopper Ivan Necevski to take a one-goal advantage to the break before Charles Lokolingoy converted a second from the spot early in the second half to double the lead for the hosts.

Jason Romero netted one in the 68th minute to keep the visitors in the game, but young-gun Domenic Costanzo scored a third for the hosts in the 75th minute to give the Stallions a bit of relief.

A third penalty in the final moments of the game was icing on the cake of the home side.

The convincing 4-1 scoreline over a dangerous APIA Leichhardt squad should give Marconi plenty of momentum as they approach the second leg of the competition.
