2022 - ROUND 13

CLUB WELCOME

Welcome back to the Sydney United Sports Centre, as the boys in the Red and White celebrate their first win last week after 6 weeks of disappointing results. Payne and Antelmi will be excited to get back on the roll with more goals to their tally this season, both scoring 2 last game. Will the momentum continue? Will the team finally get that clean sheet they've been desperately seeking? Get ready for it to all unfold at this enticing Round 13 fixture against a relentless Sutherland Sharks squad.

You may also notice a few extra checkers around the grounds, as Sydney United joins in the festivities to their motherland, and celebrate the National Statehood of Croatia. Watch out for the cuties from Croatian Folkloric Group, Lindo, who will be escorting players onto the field. As well as Ivica Glasnovic, the Croatian Consulate General, who will take the first kick of the game.

There's only one club who can host a game with this much action, so be sure to back your boys and bring the noise!

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 finally returned to winning ways in Round 12 and will be hungry to do so in front of their home fans on Sunday afternoon.

A 4-3 victory over Wollongong in Round 12 proved that United 58 have the capability to score goals and win games and they will need to continue this form in order to stay competitive in the competition.

Chris Payne was crucial to United 58's win and will be one to watch in this clash, along with Chris Lindsay who feature in the Team of the Week alongside Payne.

Sutherland head into the clash with two consecutive losses against 10-man teams as they struggle to find form or consistency in their 2022 campaign.

Under the new leadership of Luis Contigiani and Steve Gordon, Sutherland will be making the trip to Sydney United Sports Centre with the hopes of regrouping and finding some rhythm within their squad.

United 58 managed a 3-2 victory over the Sharks in Round 2, will they be able to do it again?

On a side note, United 58 will also pay tribute to its Croatian heritage as they celebrate the Statehood of their nation with the consulate General of Croatia to take the first kick of the game followed by some traditional dancing as part of the festivities.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Wollongong Wolves 3 – Sydney United 4 at Sir Ian McLennan Oval

Sydney United 58 found themselves on the right side of a seven-goal thriller at Ian McLennan Park with a 4-3 victory against Wollongong Wolves on Sunday night.

Patrick Antelmi's brace gave the visitors an early lead however, goals to Leroy Jennings and Lachlan Scott saw the South Coast side go into the break level.

Scott scored his second early in the second half to put the Wolves in front, but two goals to Christopher Payne in the remainder of the game ensured Sydney United 58 took the points.

Marconi Stallions FC 2 – Sutherland Sharks FC 1 at Marconi Stadium

A ten-man Marconi Stallions triumphed over Sutherland Sharks in Round 12 of the National Premier Leagues Men's competition, with a 2-1 victory at Marconi Stadium on Saturday night.

Going down to ten men following the sending off of Nathan Millgate, Marconi breathed a sigh of relief when 'keeper Nenad Vekic saved a penalty just before the half-time break, but Sutherland were quick to pounce when the game recommenced, taking the lead in the 47th minute through James Baldacchino

The Stallions managed to equalise through Domenic Costanzo in the 49th minute and then extended their lead through captain Marko Jesic in the 57th.

The hosts dug in and managed to hold out Sutherland to gain a valuable three points before they face up with the league leaders, Sydney FC, next week.
