2022 - ROUND 19

CLUB WELCOME

Good afternoon and welcome to Cromer Park for this afternoon's National Premier League NSW Men's 2022 match between Manly United and Blacktown City FC and the 2022 Back to Manly Day.

Today we celebrate the history of football on the Northern Beaches and welcome all former players, coaches, administrators, parents, and supporters to Cromer Park.

Following their first loss at Cromer Park last Friday night to Marconi Stallions FC, 1-0, Manly United return today looking to put on a show for Back to Manly Day.

With many near misses in last Friday's match with Matt Sim hitting the woodwork twice and Alen Aganovic heading one over the cross bar, Manly will be looking to restart their winning streak again today.

With only three more rounds following today's match and a very tight competition there is still a chance for Manly United to take the silverware.

Blacktown City, who are only one point behind Manly, travel to Cromer Park today following a 2-2 draw against Sydney FC last Sunday. With the top seven of the competition only separated by five points, a victory for Blacktown City FC today will see them enter the top four.

Good luck to both teams and we hope you all enjoy celebrating Back to Manly Day as well as an entertaining match of football right here at the home of football on the Northern Beaches, Cromer Park.

MATCH PREVIEW

Manly United FC v Blacktown City FC

3:00pm, Saturday 9th July, Cromer Park

In what is set to be a fiery clash, Blacktown City will travel to the Northern Beaches to take on Manly United on Saturday afternoon.

It's a high-stakes encounter for both sides with finals football on the line with just four games to go in the season.

Manly sit in second place after their narrow loss to Marconi on the weekend, while Blacktown have remained in fifth position after getting a point from their battle with the young sky blues.

With the addition of Travis Major, Blacktown have displayed some fine form and with the impending return of Danny Choi they will surely be a force to be reckoned with.

With the potential to take out the Premiership both teams need to get maximum points from this battle.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Manly United FC 0 – Marconi Stallions FC 1 at Cromer Park

It was a wet and wild affair at Cromer Park on Friday night as a gutsy Marconi stunned league leaders Manly United to go top with a 1-0 victory.

The win makes Marconi the only side to defeat Manly United at home in the 2022 NPL NSW Men's season.

The only goal of the match came from Marconi defender Nathan Millgate, as he knocked away a header to secure victory for his side.

With just two points separating the hosts and Marconi in fifth place before the encounter, the three points were invaluable for Marconi as they continue chasing Premiership glory.

Sydney FC 2 – Blacktown City FC 2 at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre

Sydney FC shared points with Blacktown City FC in a 2-2 draw on a wild and windy Sunday afternoon at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre.

Aaron Gurd opened the scoring for Sydney FC in the 13th minute of the game before Blacktown's returning hero Travis Major equalised in the 29th minute, leaving the teams on even footing at the half-time break.

Jaiden Kucharski converted a penalty in the 80th minute and the young sky blues thought they had a hold of the three points, but substitute Carlos De Oliveira managed an 85th minute goal to equalise for the visitors for the second time in the match and secure a point from the battle.

The result keeps both teams within the race for finals and the Premiership as the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition continues to be a tight battle heading into the final stage of the season.
