2022 - ROUND 14

CLUB WELCOME

We welcome all players, staff, and supporters to Round 14 fixture against Sydney Olympic FC.

With the boys coming out of last week's game with a win, we look to focus on our opponent this week and do the same again to get another 3 points.

The boys have the confidence to get another win this Saturday and we will train and prepare as we usually do.

A big thanks to all our sponsors, volunteers, family, and friends of the players for their support during the season so far and hope to see you all at the match!

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney Olympic will make the trip out to Edensor Park for a Saturday afternoon clash with the Northbridge Bulls.

Olympic, who have moved up to third position on the league ladder with equal points with Sydney FC, have upped the ante with their Premiership push and are real contenders for the title.

Plenty is on the line for the Belmore boys as they match up against the young Northbridge side that has featured a number of A-League faces in recent weeks.

Lachlan Rose has been dangerous for the Bulls in the past few games and was featured in the Round 13 Team of the Week after his team's defeat of Wollongong at the weekend.

Roy O'Donovan featured for Olympic in their defeat of rivals Rockdale Ilinden and will be looking to use his experience to knock home some more goals on Saturday.

The last time these two met, Olympic managed a 2-0 victory - will they be able to do it again and earn some crucial points?

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Wollongong Wolves FC 2 – Northbridge Bulls FC 3 at WIN Stadium

A first half goal-glut saw Northbridge Bulls prevail 3-2 against Wollongong Wolves at WIN Stadium on Friday night to record only their second victory in 2022.

The Wolves took the lead 14 minutes in through Peter Simonoski, however, a quickfire double midway through the half from Alhassan Toure and Stephan De Robillard put the Bulls in front.

In the final 10 minutes of the half, Banri Kanaizumi equalised for the home side, but on the stroke of halftime, Northbridge took the lead and wrapped up scoring in the match, courtesy of Lachlan Rose.

Rockdale Ilinden FC 1 – Sydney Olympic FC 3 at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre

Sydney Olympic secured a 3-1 victory over local rivals Rockdale Ilinden at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday evening.

The two sides faced up in Round 13 of the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition to renew battle in one of the leagues more traditionally lively fixtures.

Ilinden were down to the bare minimum on the playing roster through injuries, including inspirational skipper Danny Petkovski, to the squad but it would prove no excuse in a full blooded game that promised and delivered plenty.

The visitors got off to a flyer after Irish striker Roy O'Donovan netted a brace by the 11th minute of the tie before Alec Urosevski reduced the deficit with a thumping left-footed drive in the 20th.

The goals kept coming in the opening half when Oliver Puflett found the net with a sumptuous curling effort from the edge of the box.

It proved the final goal of an end-to-end fixture and a vital three points in the chase for final's football.
