2022 - ROUND 15

CLUB WELCOME

Sutherland Sharks FC would like to welcome the players, officials and supporters of the Mt Druitt Town Rangers to Seymour Shaw Park this Saturday afternoon, in what will be a pivotal match in the run home of the season.

Sutherland have had a frustrating few weeks where they have failed to capitalise on their early dominance in matches, coaches Louis Contigiani and Steve Gordan have been left ruing missed goal scoring opportunities but will look to turn things around against a Mt Druitt side who will be desperate to take the points off us.

James Andrew hit the back of the net last week against Manly and he will be looking for a repeat performance up front, assisted by our midfield weapons such as Jason Madonis and Nick Sullivan. Patrick O'Shea was a rock in defense last week and he will need to lead the backline in a strong fashion to prevent the Rangers strikers from attacking.

We anticipate a free flowing open game of football and hope to secure the win for all of our local fans, we really appreciate the support we are getting from our sponsors such as PipeKing, Ace Gutters and Plane2Sea just to name a few, and we look forward to seeing a big crowd at the game.

Our under 20's side will be looking to put on a strong performance in the lead up match, young talents such as Tye McGowan, Chris Neskovski and Marcus Russo will no doubt be fighting hard for the win.

Our pre match and halftime entertainment will be provided by the u9 Sylvania FC local juniors, we look forward to watching them strut their stuff.

Go Sutho!

MATCH PREVIEW

The Sutherland Sharks will host the Mt Druitt Town Rangers on Saturday afternoon.

The two teams have had less than ideal seasons, sitting in 10th and 11th place on the NPL NSW ladder with just one point separating them.

Jack Stewart will be one to watch for Mt Druitt Town as he'll attempt to get some goals past Anthony Bouzanis as they look to get a win from the game.

While their chances of making finals football are incredibly slim, there's plenty of opportunity for the teams to work on their gameplay.

After Sutherland nabbed a 3-2 victory over the Rangers in Round 4, Mt Druitt will be hoping to repay the favour at Seymour Shaw.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Manly United FC 2 – Sutherland Sharks FC 1 at Cromer Park

Manly United triumphed over Sutherland Sharks on Friday night with a 2-1 victory at Cromer Park with Brazilian ace Bruno Mendes stealing the show with one of the goals of the NPL NSW Men's season.

Manly have the wonderful Mendes to thank after the Brazilian's big night out saw them move into first place, the winner leading the way for 'Goal of the Season'.

The brace from Mendes came after James Andrew secured the lead for the Sharks with a goal in the 30th minute, but the visitors couldn't hold on to the lead and fell to the Northern Beaches outfit.

Mt Druitt Town Rangers FC 2 – Sydney United 58 FC 2 at Popondetta Park

Sydney United 58 produced a fabulous fightback for a 2-2 draw against Mt Druitt Town Rangers on Friday night at Popondetta Park as both teams shared the spoils.

In another frustrating night for the home side the Rangers started off strong as Jack Stewart opened the scoring and Olayinka Sunmola doubled their lead in the first half, but they couldn't hold on to the lead.

After being down early in the game away from home, Chris Payne and Patrick Antelmi both knocked home goals to earn United 58 a point on a cold night in the west.
