2022 - ROUND 19

CLUB WELCOME

Welcome back to the Sydney United Sports Centre, where your boys in red-white and blue take on the Marconi Stallions in what will be a local derby. The last time these two teams met, it was Marconi who took the win in the derby with a 4-2 win but our boys will definitely look to get revenge over our rivalry neighbours at our home turf this time.

The boys will be heading into this game after playing a mid-week game against another one of our rivals Bonnyrigg White Eagles in the semi-final of the Waratah Cup. Hopefully the boys can come into this game against Marconi with confidence after their game with Bonnyrigg as the boys in red-white and blue still have hope of making finals football.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 FC v Marconi Stallions FC

3:00pm, Sunday 10th July,
Sydney United Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 will be looking to hold out the league leaders in their local derby on Sunday afternoon.

Marconi will surely be riding high after knocking off Manly United and taking the top spot in their 1-0 victory last weekend thanks to a Nathan Millgate header.

With finals football off the table for the hosts, they will be looking to prove they are still a heavyweight within the competition in this clash and certainly have the team to challenge the Stallions.

With the departure of Charles Lokolingoy, Marconi will lean on the likes of Marko Jesic, Thomas James and Domenic Costanzo to guide their attacking charge.

After a convincing 4-2 victory to Marconi in the Round 8 clash between these two historic teams, who will come out on top this weekend?

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Washed out:

Sydney Olympic v Sydney United 58

Manly United FC 0 – Marconi Stallions FC 1 at Cromer Park

It was a wet and wild affair at Cromer Park on Friday night as a gutsy Marconi stunned league leaders Manly United to go top with a 1-0 victory.

The win makes Marconi the only side to defeat Manly United at home in the 2022 NPL NSW Men's season.

The only goal of the match came from Marconi defender Nathan Millgate, as he knocked away a header to secure victory for his side.

With just two points separating the hosts and Marconi in fifth place before the encounter, the three points were invaluable for Marconi as they continue chasing Premiership glory.
