IN MEMORIAM

During the COVID lockdowns in 2021, APIA unexpectedly lost one of its dearest supporters and a member of its Board of Directors, David Marocchi.

David contributed to the Senior, Women's program, and Junior club generously over the years and held APIA close to his heart.

As a sign of respect to David and his family, APIA will dedicate today's Match vs Marconi in his memory. Our First Grade mens side will wear black armbands and have 1-minute silence before kick-off.

FROM THE COACH

Welcome Marconi to round 21 of the NSW NPL Men's season. Second last round of the competition has APIA still in the race for semi-final football. One of the biggest games on the calendar is the Italian derby with our encounter against Marconi. Having lost the first round game against Marconi, we are keen to turn the tides on this one. There is still a lot to play for following our tough loss to Sydney Olympic last week and we are still capable of playing in the semi's. Our focus is solely on this week and preparing to win the game. Marconi are currently equal first and with a number of teams in and around the top five, every team is looking for valuable points at this time of the year. I look forward to seeing you at the game.

MATCH PREVIEW

In the Italian derby, APIA Leichhardt will be looking to stop Marconi's chances of Premiership glory and secure themselves a finals place in the process.

With two of the most experienced teams in the competition there will be plenty of quality football in the match.

APIA Leichhardt are looking to bounce back after five games without a win heading into Round 21, while Marconi's draw with Wollongong will surely have them hungry to prove themselves and keep silverware within reach.

Without the attacking prowess of Charles Lokolingoy, Marconi will be looking to Domenic Costanzo, Marko Jesic and Chris Hatfield, while APIA have the talent of Diego Celis and Jason Romero in their forward line to rustle the Marconi defence.

In one of the tightest finals battles in years, there is so much on the line for two historic teams with a history of high-calibre, intense battles and this will surely be no exception.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

APIA Leichhardt FC 0 – Sydney Olympic FC 1 at Lambert Park

Sydney Olympic earned crucial points against APIA Leichhardt with a 1-0 victory on Sunday evening at Lambert Park.

A Roy O'Donovan header early in the second half was the difference between the two teams despite a 90-minute battle that proved to be a tight affair befitting the occasion of a grand clash between two historic giants.

If three points are the name of the game then Sydney Olympic certainly achieved that, but APIA Leichhardt will be disappointed not to have secured a point in the inner-west derby between two of the oldest and proudest clubs in Australia.

Wollongong Wolves FC 0 – Marconi Stallions 0 at WIN Stadium

The Wollongong Wolves have managed to frustrate Marconi Stallions to a 0-0 draw at WIN Stadium on Friday night, a result that has opened the door for Blacktown City to leapfrog them following their match on Saturday against the Sutherland Sharks.

Despite a plethora of chances throughout the 90 minutes neither team was able to capitalise on their opportunities, leaving the game to finish goalless.

Three points would have been incredibly valuable to Marconi's National Premier Leagues NSW Men's Premiership campaign, but they'll move forward with one point as they enter the final two matches of the season.

WOMEN'S NPL PREVIEW

ROUND 16

All eyes will be on the final fixture of Sunday night at Lambert Park as second placed APIA Leichhardt host league leaders Sydney University.

They are currently the two teams with the best form stats in the competition heading into this one. Uni don't know for defeat since their second game of the season defeat, while APIA haven't lost in six weeks.

APIA played some good football last week but struggled to break their opponents down. The winner eventually came in the dying embers of the game but it didn't matter as the points stayed at Lambert Park.

Shea Connors is without a doubt a standout for APIA but with the incredibly calm Sarah Hunter leaving for international duty, APIA will have some gap to plug up. Princess Ibini will be back from international duty this week, having watched her team mates from the sideline on Sunday.

Spirit made it tough for Uni last week but when you are at the top of the competition, confident and in form, things go your way. Only conceding six goals this season, Uni's defence will need to be at their best to stop APIA's top scorer Connors.

Should Emily Husband's team record all three points in this top of the table clash, they will definitely have placed one hand on the Premiership trophy.

Sydney Uni took the spoils last time they met with a 2-0 victory, a comfortable three points on that occasion.
