2022 - ROUND 22

CLUB WELCOME

Good evening and welcome to Cromer Park for this afternoon's National Premier League NSW Men's 2022 match between Manly United and Rockdale Ilinden FC and the final round of the season.

The 2022 season comes to an end this afternoon and it could see Manly United crowned NPL NSW 2022 Premiers.

Such is the tightness of the competition this year that every position in the finals series will be determined by today's results and Manly United can finish anywhere from 1st to 6th.

Manly United and Sydney Olympic are currently sitting equal on the ladder, only separated by one goal. For Manly United to claim the title both teams must win this afternoon, however Manly needs to better Olympics' result by two goals.

Returning home after a 4-2 victory last week against Sydney United 58 FC, Manly United will be looking to do the same today and put on a show for their home crowd.

Manly United will be looking for early goals once again today following Finn Ashton's and Kristian

Santich's 2nd and 8th minute goals in last week's match to take an early lead.

Weaving his way through the match, Seiya Kambayashi played a crucial role against Sydney United and will need to do the same against Rockdale Ilinden today to keep the premiership dream alive.

The visitors travel to Cromer Park today though with their own agenda. Sitting in sixth place a victory today will see them qualify for the final's series. Coming off the back of a 2-1 win against Sydney FC, Rockdale have everything to play for and nothing to lose in today's match.

Good luck to both teams this afternoon and we'd like to thank all of our supporters for their continued support throughout the 2022 season and we hope you enjoy the final round of the NPL NSW Men's 2022 season.

The Manly United First Grade Women are also kicking off at 5:25pm this afternoon on Cromer Park Field 1 so stick around for more NPL football.

MATCH PREVIEW

With plenty riding on this match, this is a must-win for both sides as they wrap up their 2022 seasons.

A win for Manly could mean the Premiership title, depending on the outcome of the Blacktown City v Sydney Olympic match, while Rockdale need to take maximum points from the clash to have any hope of finals football.

Both sides have impressed throughout the season and have shown their ability to play their particular style of football.

Manly skipper Jimmy Oates has guided his team through the season well, and even nabbed an applaudable number of goals, and will be a source of leadership for the Northern Beaches outfit as they put everything on the line.

Rockdale's Alec Urosevski will have extra motivation to score goals and get the win as he looks to secure the league's golden boot.

With plenty to play for, this one will be an action-packed clash.

Sydney United 58 FC 2 – Manly United FC 4 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Manly United have kept their Premiership hopes alive for another week after a dominant first half helped secure a 4-2 win over Sydney United 58 at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday afternoon.

Two goals in the opening ten minutes from Finn Ashton and Kristian Santich set up Manly for a dominant opening half, before Bruno Mendes extended the lead to three on the brink of half time.

United 58 came alive in the second half and opened the scoring through Jordan Roberts, shortly before Manly answered back through their captain James Oates.

The hosts secured a consolation in the final when Patrick Antelmi converted from the penalty spot, but it was Manly's day as they picked up three crucial points in the race for first.

Rockdale Ilinden FC 2 – Sydney FC 1 at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre

A pulsating grandstand finish saw Rockdale Ilinden secure a valuable three points with a hard-fought 2-1 win over Sydney FC at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday evening.

Alec Urosevski opened the scoring for Rockdale, but Sydney FC hit back through Nathan Grimaldi before substitute Jamie Percevski powered home a header to lock up the win.

Experienced defender Mitchell Stamatellis was missing for the home side due to a niggling hamstring injury and both talisman 'Special K' Jaiden Kucharski and Adrian Segecic were out for Sydney FC.
