MATCH PREVIEW

After slipping out of Premiership contention last week, Marconi will still have to put in a good performance against the young Bulls in order to qualify for finals football.

Having lost Charles Lokolingoy at a less than ideal time in the season, the Stallions need their attackers to find the back of the net in the final round of the season.

The visitors will be without defender Roberto Speranza for the match after he received a red card last weekend, but Peter Tsekenis will have several options from his bench to bolster his team.

Northbridge have been in their best form of the season in recent weeks and, despite their season being certain to come to a close after this match, they've shown plenty of drive to prove themselves within their club.

Tsekenis' team will be looking to get the win and gain momentum after a few tough results and will be hoping to secure their place within the top five to go for the Championship.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Sutherland Sharks FC 2 – Northbridge Bulls 2 at Seymour Shaw

Sutherland Sharks' last home match for the 2022 NPL NSW Men's season saw them share points in a hard-fought 2-2 draw against Northbridge Bulls at Seymour Shaw Park on Saturday evening.

Goals from Jesper Webber and Diego Bonilla for the visitors in the opening 15 minutes saw them get ahead early, but second-half goals to Lachlan MacDonald and substitute Mitch Smith cancelled out the two-goal deficit to earn a point for the home side.

APIA Leichhardt 2 – Marconi Stallions FC 2 at Lambert Park

APIA Leichhardt secured a 2-0 victory over a 10-man Marconi at Lambert Park on Sunday evening in the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's 'Italian Derby'.

The match up had everything you would expect of a historic rivalry, with plenty of fire, physicality and intensity from both ends of the park.

The opening goal of the match came just before the half-time break for the hosts through Yianni Nicolau, with a converted penalty from Jason Romero in the 62nd minute taking the hosts to two goals and the visitors to 10 men as Roberto Speranza was sent from the field with his second yellow.

The loss has made taking the Premiership title much harder for Marconi, but has put APIA Leichhardt in a strong position to qualify for finals football.
