2022 - ROUND 20

CLUB WELCOME

After a tough month of football with some indifferent results the Sutherland Sharks are happy to welcome the Blacktown City players, officials, and supporters to Seymour Shaw Park for this Round 20 clash.

Sutherland will be looking to bounce back from last week's tough loss to local rivals Rockdale.

The Sharks will be buoyant heading in to today after claiming a point and unlucky not to be all 3 in a round 18 catch up v APIA midweek.

Pat O'Shea and his team are confident that they will be able to upset their highly fancied rivals in Blacktown City.

Steve Gordon has continued to support our team as a caretaker coach and with the help of the senior playing group will have the team up for the challenge.

Players such as Jason Madonis, Jeremy Cox and Mark Rodic will drive the team and ensure that nothing is left on the table after the match.

Our under 20's team has found some form of late. Our young players will be looking to put their best foot forward as they strive for another win.

We would also like to extend a warm welcome to all players past and present in attendance today for 'Back to Seymour Shaw' Old boys' day. It will be great to see so many familiar faces and trust a great day will be had by all.

Sutherland Sharks are forever grateful to their dedicated sponsors like The Pipe King, Ace Gutters, Plane 2 Sea, Sylvania BMW, Pro Reo and Handy Crete just to name a few, we sincerely thank them and all of our sponsors for their continued support.

Go The Sharks!

MATCH PREVIEW

A reinvigorated Blacktown City will be hoping to continue their dash for the Premiership as they take on Sutherland on Saturday afternoon.

A huge 6-1 victory over Manly will have the Blacktown boys buoyed as they head into this encounter looking to make a big impact.

With Travis Major back in the mix for Blacktown and the looming return of Danny Choi, they will certainly be a force to be reckoned with considering their already impressive side.

The bottom of the table Sharks don't have finals to fight for, but with a big 2023 on the horizon they'll be looking to finish their season on a high and a win over a heavyweight team like Blacktown would do wonders for their morale.

Sutherland managed to hold out APIA Leichhardt to a draw in their midweek clash, which will surely give them some confidence to take on another league heavyweight.

As every point matters in the final stage of the season, who will come out on top?

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Rockdale Ilinden 3 v Sutherland Sharks 2

It was a battle but Rockdale Ilinden took all the spoils in the local derby victory against the Sutherland Sharks as the hosts took out the match 3-2 at the Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

Rockdale's main man Alec Urosevski got the party started with his first of two goals before Pat O'Shea levelled just after the half an hour mark.

Mitch Stamatellis restored parity for the home side with a long range bomb before Lachlan Everett bagged an equaliser.

Urosevski however had the last laugh as his second goal of the match all but sealed the victory and his spot as the league's leading scorer after nineteen matches.

Manly United 1 v Blacktown City 6

It was the traveling Blacktown City FC who crashed Manly United's 'Back to Manly' day after a thrashing 6-1 victory at Cromer Park on Saturday afternoon.

Goals to Lachlan Campbell, Grant Lynch, Jak O'Brien, Travis Major, Mario Shabow and an own goal from Jimmy Oates all but cancelled out Alen Aganovic's goal in the first half.

It was a massive victory for Mark Crittenden and his troops who sent out a stark warning to fellow rival NPL NSW Men's sides, Blacktown City meant business in the business half of the 2022 NPL NSW Men's season.
