CLUB WELCOME

After having to play 3 matches in 6 days our Sutherland Sharks 1st grade team ran out of legs against the table topping Blacktown City side, going down 0-1 in what was a very close contest. This week we welcome the players, officials and supporters of the Northbridge Bulls to Seymour Shaw Park in what will be our last home appearance for the 2022 season. In a year filled with adversity our players have continued to give their all for the team and the club, and they will need to be ready for a Northbridge side who has found some form late in the season, Pat O'shea, Anthony Bouzanis and James Baldaccino were excellent in defense last week and will be needing a repeat performance today against a sharp attack.

Adversity during the season has given opportunity to some of our developing players such as Lachlan Macdonald and Luke Sauer, both of whom have demonstrated their ability to match it with seasoned campaigners and will no doubt be bright prospects for our future teams. Steve Gordon will have the team ready to give their all, players such as Nick Sullivan, Mark Rodic and James Andrew will give everything to get the result.

Our young under 20's side has also struggled with player numbers this season due to injury and illness, however, week in week out they put their best foot forward and play with spirit and determination which will set them in good stead for next season.

In what has been a challenging year our loyal supporters have continued to turn up to Seymour Shaw in great numbers and we sincerely thank them and our loyal sponsors for joining us in season 2022.

Go Sutho!

Rob Sauer
President

MATCH PREVIEW

An in-form Northbridge Bulls will be looking to continue their form as they come to the end of the season.

Their 2-1 win over Rockdale Ilinden saw them upset the hopes of a finals contender and secure their third win in a row and they'll be hoping for another win over Sutherland to try to jump over Wollongong on the league ladder.

Sutherland's last win came against Northbridge in Round 10 so will be desperate to get another win as their season wraps up.

With both teams looking forward to the 2023 season, this should be an interesting match up as they don't have the pressure of finals football influencing their game.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Sutherland Sharks FC 0 – Blacktown City FC 1 at Seymour Shaw

A much improved Sutherland Sharks put up a good fight against Blacktown City, but were powerless to stop the juggernaut in a 1-0 defeat at Seymour Shaw Park on Saturday afternoon.

It was that man again, Travis Major who netted the only goal of the game, his sixth since coming back from overseas a few weeks ago, after being set up by substitute Charles Mendy midway through the second half, to side-foot home in a frustrating afternoon for the visitors.

Northbridge Bulls FC 2 – Rockdale Ilinden FC 1 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Rockdale Ilinden's finals hopes have taken a hit as the youngsters from Northbridge Bulls FC recorded a 2-1 victory, their third successive win, at the Sydney United Sports Centre on Saturday afternoon.

Jesper Webber opened the scoring with a curler, then a late Nathan Dimou goal made it win number five for the Bulls.

The visitors did equalise through Bai Antoniou, but couldn't find another goal in a tight tussle against the Bulls.

The loss dealt a huge blow to Rockdale Ilinden's finals hopes with two games remaining in the season.
