MATCH PREVIEW

The high-scoring young sky blues will come up against Sydney United 58 in an unusual morning match at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

Football fans will have the chance to watch some daytime football to fill in their Sunday and it will be a big match as Sydney FC fight for finals against the experience of Sydney United 58.

United 58 managed to hold out a dangerous Sydney Olympic side to a scoreless draw on Wednesday night and will need to do the same to a young and vivacious Sydney FC.

While finals are off the table for the visitors, they will still put up a good fight as they look to dash the hopes of Sydney FC.

With their first win last week after a string of draws, Sydney FC will be hoping to continue their winning ways and start a streak heading into the end of the season as their finals football hopes hang in the balance.

Sydney Olympic 0 v Sydney FC 3

The young guns from Sydney FC continued its push for a first NPL NSW Men's Premiership title defeating fellow high flyers Sydney Olympic 3-0 at Belmore Sports Ground on Saturday.

A goal just prior to the break by the competition's hottest young talent Jaiden Kucharski sent the home side into a tailspin before Kucharski doubled the lead with a second half penalty and then set up the final goal to substitute Ben Gibson.

Sydney FC were justifiably proud of their win and the young players celebrated with some passion in the dressing rooms after the encounter.

It was a much more sombre mood though in the Sydney Olympic room as they were forced to digest the bitter pill of the loss in front of their home fans.

Sydney United 58 0 v Marconi Stallions 1

Amidst treacherous conditions at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday afternoon, a stoic Marconi Stallions FC regained top spot after a hard fought 1-0 victory over Sydney United 58 FC.

The only goal of the match coming early in the second half via Stallions skipper Marko Jesic which all but pushed the former NSL giants side back to the top of the NPL NSW Men's ladder.
